OK Foreign Aid Program Of $6 Billion

Tentative Approval Given Figure Set By Security Council

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and his top advisers have tentatively approved a foreign aid budget calling for slightly more than six billion dollars for the coming fiscal year.

Responsible officials who reported this today said the National Security Council laid out a program of that size at a White House meeting yesterday.

The final figure to be asked from Congress for the year starting July 1 has not been finally determined. A program ranging between $6,000,000,000 is now in prospect, said these officials, asking not to be named.

The White House is drafting a special request to be sent to Congress within a week. The final figure will be inserted within the next few days after final conferences among top defense, State Department and military aid chiefs.

Without reference to these specific figures, Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said today foreign aid spending must bear a "proportionate" share in budget cuts. He indicated that figure might be from 2½ billion dollars under the $7,600,000,000 which former President Truman said in his farewell budget was the minimum amount Congress should appropriate to guarantee Western security against communism.

Even a foreign aid program of $6,100,000,000—1½ billions under that—would represent considerably more than top Republican planners thought was needed a week ago. Key officials then said they believed the sum could be held to about $5,600,000,000. The amount voted for the present year was about six billions.

Intensive review of world conditions in the past week, officials said, convinced Eisenhower and his aides of a need for a bigger sum.

MRS. ETHLYN BOTT

Illinois Woman Is American Mother of 1953

Committee Selects Stepmother Who Reared 4 Children

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A stepmother who successfully reared four motherless children has been named the American Mother of 1953.

The American Mothers Committee selected for its annual honor Mrs. Ethlyn Wisegarver Bott, 58, marking the first time in its nearly 25 years it gave the award to a stepmother.

Mrs. Bott is the wife of Dr. Anthony E. Bott of Belleville and for 20 years has been mother to his four children, two sons and two daughters. All spoke of her proudly when announcement of the honor was made in New York yesterday. At her home here, Mrs. Bott said: "I am very, very happy and very humble. The ideals which I have followed will continue to be followed. Our family really is no different from the family next door."

A national jury of prominent women, in announcing Mrs. Bott's selection, said one testimonial in her behalf read:

Hospital Plane Leaves Honolulu On Last Leg of Flight

HONOLULU (AP)—A big hospital plane carrying 35 excited American fighting men freed from Communist prison camps only a week ago left today on the last Pacific lap of a flight home.

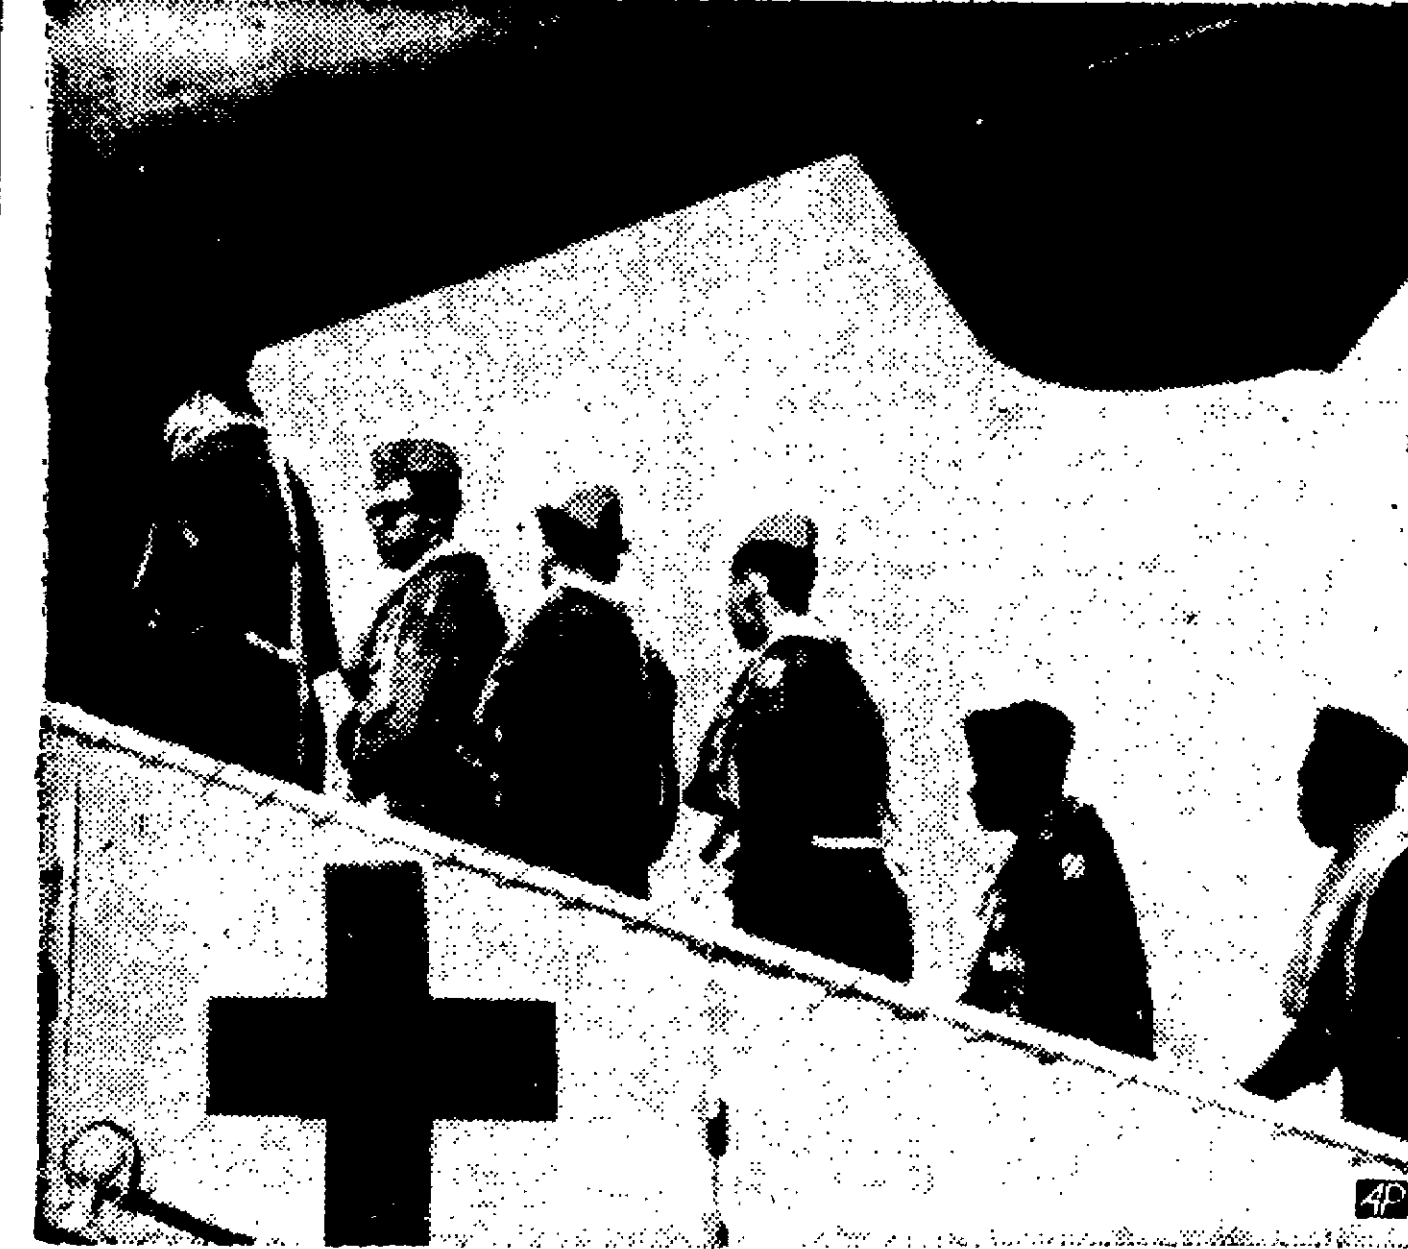

The plane was airborne at 12:12 a. m. (5:12 a. m., EST). It is due at Travis Air Force Base, 30 miles northeast of San Francisco, about 1 p. m. Pacific Daylight Time (3 p. m., EST).

In contrast the gala welcome when the men arrived yesterday, their departure was virtually unnoticed.

Two reporters and a handful of photographers saw them off.

The men remained aboard Army ambulances and buses for more than an hour while agriculture inspectors gave their giant strato-cruiser plane a last-minute spraying.

An Air Force spokesman said all of the 35 have temporary orders assigning them to Travis. Soon after their arrival new orders will be cut sending men who are well enough directly to their homes. Those who need further hospital care will be sent to hospitals near their homes if possible.

REPATRIATES HOMEWARD BOUND. First of American soldiers, repatriated last week in the exchange of sick and wounded prisoners of war at Panmunjom, board a hospital plane near Tokyo as they leave for the United States. The hospital plane will make a 24-hour stopover in Honolulu.

Allied-Held POWs May Go to India

Making Progress At Panmunjom, Says Top U.N. Negotiator

MUNSAN (AP)—Communist truce negotiators suggested today that 50,000 Allied-held war prisoners who do not want to go home be sent to an unnamed neutral nation in Asia. The Reds also agreed to bargain on the time needed to determine their future.

"I think we made some progress," said Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison, chief U. N. negotiator. "At least they are not adamant on the time prisoners are to be held in custody."

While the Communists did not name a neutral, there were unofficial reports the Reds would nominate India. Observers predicted U.N. negotiators would agree The Communists have rejected Switzerland as a neutral.

When the nomination of India was mentioned unofficially nearly a month ago, official Indian quarters said they were sure Prime Minister Nehru would refuse because of the past history of bitter violence in Korea prison camps.

At the end of a 64-minute session at Panmunjom the three major points of dispute appeared to shape up like this:

1. The Communists indicated they were ready to bargain on the

File Murder Charge Against Kenton Mother

Held in Death of Boy; Charge Husband With Cruel Punishment

Special to The Star
KENTON—Mrs. Wilma Shaw, 24, of Kenton, pleaded not guilty Monday to second degree murder charges filed against her in connection with the fatal beating of her two-year-old son, Donald. Her husband, Richard, 26, charged with "unlawful and cruel punishment" of the child, also pleaded not guilty in the hearings held before Justice of the Peace

Verdict Is Reversed In Neglect Case

Court Finds Guilt Not Proved in Charge Against Mrs. Watson

The Third District Court of Appeals has reversed the verdict of the Marion County Juvenile Court against Mrs. Sarah Viola Watson of 533 Adams St. Mrs. Watson had been found guilty of neglect in the care of her child last fall following the death of her baby daughter, Barbara Elaine, of malnutrition. She was given a suspended one-year sentence in the workhouse and was fined $1,000 by Juvenile Judge Ed-ley E. Smith.

Mrs. Shaw is being held at the Hardin County jail in lieu of $5,000 bond. Maximum punishment for Shaw, who is held at the jail under $500 bond, would be six months in jail or a $500 fine, or both.

Prosecuting Attorney Paul N. McFinley, who filed the charges, said a special grand jury will be called within the next two weeks.

The child's death, which occurred at the Shaw home Saturday, was caused by a hard blow to the head, according to reports by Hardin County Coroner H. R. Johanson and Lima pathologist Dr. F. A. Hemsath.

At first, the Shaws told Kenton police that the boy had fallen over a chair and hit his head on a tricycle. Later Mrs. Shaw admitted to Hardin County Sheriff Clarence F. Brown and the prosecutor that she had slapped and kicked her son to death. She said the beating took place in a fit of anger following an argument with her husband. She said the child always seemed to love his father more than he did her.

She told county authorities that she struck the youngster and kicked him several times when he fell to the floor. According to the report by the prosecutor and sheriff, she admitted carrying the child into the bathroom where she dropped him on the floor. In the fall, the baby reportedly hit his head on the bathtub.

The Shaws were not represented by counsel at the hearings. Their two other children are being cared for by their maternal grandparents.

Reds Whip French In Indochina

HANOI, Indochina (AP) — The French announced today that Communist-led Vietminh invaders of the kingdom of Laos have taken the post of Bannambac, 40 miles north of the Laotian royal seat of Lungprabang.

It was the second French reverse in the area announced in as many days. Yesterday the French reported the loss of Pakseng, 42 miles northeast of Luangprabang.

Though the Vietminh still had not launched a direct attack on Luangprabang, the Communist leaders appeared to be throwing more and more of their best fighting men into the Laos invasion.

Crash Claims 6th Victim

Two Still Critical In Bucyrus Hospital

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS—A two-car collision near here Saturday claimed its sixth victim in Bucyrus City Hospital last night with the death of Wayne Baum, 10, of Lima. The child, who had been unconscious since the accident, had a skull fracture. The body was removed to the Lewis Funeral Home in Lima.

Triple funeral services were held in Lima yesterday for three other members of the Baum family—the father, Kenneth E., 32, his daughter, Irma, 3½, who were killed in the collision, and another son, Jack, 9, who later died of injuries.

Still unconscious and in critical condition in City Hospital are Mrs. Martha Baum, 29, mother and wife of the victims, and Salvatore Degastino, 64, stepfather of Mrs. Baum. Both have skull fractures.

Also killed in the crash were two Marines, Sgt. William J. Houck, 23, of Holgate, O., and Cpl. Lee McTurnan, 24, of Parker, Ind.

Investigating authorities said the crash, which occurred three miles east of here on Route 30-N, apparently was the result of Houck's car skidding on the wet pavement into the path of the oncoming Baum car.

FIND SECRET RADIOS

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Belgian police today reported discovery of five or six secret short wave radio transmitters, some of which have apparently been used to send military information to an unidentified receiver in Copenhagen. The Ministry of Defense said two persons have been arrested in connection with transmission of military information abroad.

Fourth Annual Home Show Ends Tonight

The fourth annual Home and Better Living Show sponsored by the Marion Exchange Club closes tonight at the Coliseum with a session from 7:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. after setting more records Tuesday night.

Some 2,100 persons attended the three-hour session last night, Harold Gram of Springfield, show director, said today.

Crowd figures have already surpassed the mark set at last year's show, Gram said today. He said some 6,100 persons attended the show last year and that 6,900 persons have already visited this year's show. Crowds are running about 30 per cent higher at each session over last year.

All types of products for the home, sporting equipment and many other items are on display in the 82 booths at the show. There are many actual demonstrations of the products.

This year's show, of which John Salisbury is chairman, is the biggest ever with 36 merchants taking part.

Crowds at the afternoon and evening sessions Sunday which opened the show totaled 3,100 and some 1,700 more persons visited the Coliseum Monday night.

Voting Scheduled Tuesday

Only Six Nominations Contested in Primary

When they go to the polls Tuesday for the primary election Marion voters will find a total of 19 Republican and 11 Democrat candidates on the ballots.

There are few contests, only two on the Democratic ticket. Two men are seeking the Democratic nomination as mayor and two Democrats have filed for nomination as Second Ward councilman.

There is only one city-wide contest on the Republican ticket. Two men have filed for the party's nomination as president of council.

Other GOP contests are for ward council posts. Three Republicans have filed for Second Ward councilman, three for Fourth Ward councilman and two for Sixth Ward councilman.

Unopposed Officials

Assured of nomination are three city officials who are unopposed on the Republican ticket: Mayor Harold F. Robinson, City Treasurer Harry D. Cahill and Solicitor George A. Piacentino.

Councilmen assured of renomina-

"Mrs. Bott has given each of the four Bott children a mother's interest, love, encouragement and inspiration to become responsible citizens in the home, church and community."

When she married Dr. Bott five years after the death of his first wife, his children ranged in age from 5 to 14 years. All four are college graduates. Commenting on the award, Mrs. Bott's youngest stepdaughter, Mrs. John J. Davis, 24, of Morehead City, N. C., said: "She is in reality a stepmother, I guess, but she never has been or ever will be anything but a real mother to us."

Mrs. Bott, a former school teacher, vied with mothers from all states, the District of Columbia, Alaska and Puerto Rico. She will receive her award at a luncheon at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York May 8.

The American Mothers Committee works for dedication of American homes to the Golden Rule and for the installation of a spiritual quality in the nation's annual Mother's Day which this year is May 10.

REDS FIRE ON TRUCK

BERLIN (AP)—Communist police opened pistol fire on the East-West city border today to prevent a truck with three refugees from breaking through to West Berlin.

Eyewitnesses said the driver was wounded seriously and taken away in an ambulance. His two companions were arrested.

Others assured of nomination are Mrs. Barbara B. Norris, only Democratic candidate for city treasurer; all candidates for councilman-at-large on both tickets; Raymond F. Donagh, only Republican First Ward council candidate; Frank Shoemaker, only Republican running for Third Ward councilman; and Closs G. Musgrave, only Democrat entered for the Fourth Ward council seat.

One of the three Republican candidates for Fourth Ward councilman would like to get out of the race but can't.

He is John L. Davis, who filed his application for withdrawal with the Board of Elections at its meeting Saturday. He told the Board he would not be eligible to hold the council post if nominated and elected because of his recent appeal.

Clifford L. Ward, 1952 club president, welcomed the eight new members and Clarence W. Dutton, 1952 club vice president, formally accepted them into the club which now numbers 248 company employees. Thanks on behalf of the new members was expressed by Graden E. Sobers.

The new schedule is designed to take full advantage of the school hot lunch program, to provide extra time in the afternoon for special school meetings and activities, and to keep children off the streets during the busy noon hour as much as possible.

Expansion of the school program in the way of cafeterias in the three junior and senior high schools and at the George Washington and Mark Street Schools make it possible for children to get hot lunches at the school or they may bring their own lunches and eat them in school.

School plans for the future include hot lunch programs for other elementary schools but these will not be established in time for the opening of school in September, Superintendent Lester L. Dickey said today.

Shift in Red Attitude Noted

Break May Be Near In Armistice Talks

TOKYO (AP)—There were signs today that a break might be imminent in the deadlocked armistice talks at Panmunjom.

After three days of no progress the Communists indicated they were getting ready to nominate their choice for a neutral nation.

And President Syngman Rhee of South Korea said he would agree to send to the neutral nation some 15,000 Chinese who have rejected communism.

Most observers predict that once the Communists and United Nations Command get together on a neutral nation to administer further screening of 50,000 Chinese and North Korean prisoners who have refused repatriation, the rest will be easy.

length of time needed to decide the disposition of prisoners refusing to go home.

2. There appeared to be room for compromise on the Communist nomination of an Asian country—as yet unnamed—as the neutral nation and the Allied nomination of Switzerland.

3. The Communists showed no sign of backing down on their insistence that unwilling prisoners be shipped to the neutral power. The Allies were equally firm in their demand that the prisoners be kept in Korea while their fate is decided.

On the last point, a possible compromise was a suggestion to ship Chinese prisoners to the neutral nation and to keep the Korean prisoners in Korea.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il said, "We are prepared to nominate an Asian neutral nation for the purpose of putting under its custody those prisoners of war not directly repatriated and hold consultation with your side about this matter."

Nam added: "With regard of when to send the neutral nation those prisoners of war not directly repatriated and how long they should stay, our side originally proposed that they be sent to the neutral nation within one month after the completion of direct repatriation and that the side concerned make explanations to them within the period of six months after their arrival there."

"But since your side feels that the time involved is too long, we consider that although an appropriate length of time is entirely necessary, the specific length of time, however, can be a subject of discussion."

Harrison replied it might be necessary to use force to get some

It will take time to work out the many details, but none should present a major stumbling block. The big issues still facing negotiators are:

1. Naming a neutral country.
2. Deciding whether prisoners who have renounced communism will be sent to the neutral country or turned over to the neutral's custody in Korea.

So far the major choice in Asia has been India. Although United Nations spokesmen won't comment officially, it was thought India would be acceptable.

The main point here seemed to be: Would India take the job?

On the second issue, the United Nations was firm on its stand that

Office Athletics

NEW YORK (AP)—The great landmarks of our lives are rarely announced by the blowing of bugles. We are made aware of change within ourselves by some odd moment of self-discovery, and are surprised to learn that we are not what once we were.

Thus, a woman awakens one fine morning, yawns, and thinks her day will begin as usual. Then she finds that no power on earth is any longer able to pour or pull her into a size 12 dress. Or, perhaps, she is idly plucking her eyebrows and sees shining in the mirror, a dangling thread of silver—her very first gray hair.

Her world has changed in an instant. It will never be the same again.

I had one of these shattering moments of self-revelation the other day. I was sitting at my desk typing out notes for a speech on the love habits of the porcupine when a copy boy came up and said:

"We're getting up an office softball team. What position do you want to play?"

"I don't want to play any," I said without thinking. The copy boy walked away fast, looking relieved. After all, he was trying to put together a winning team. But I was held by long, long thoughts. In a single spontaneous thoughtless sentence I had terminated my career as an office athlete. And that dates a fellow as much as if he were a container of milk, with the day of the week stamped on him.

Millions of Americans with one foot in middle-age keep their other foot in youth by indulging in office athletics.

Their breaking bones and aching muscles may cry, "Sonny, you are growing older." But bones and muscles are protesting liars as long as a man's heart still sends him gallantly puffing up to field a bunt. It is only when he suddenly discovers he doesn't want to volunteer for the team at all that age descends upon him all at once, and he feels like the one hoss shay.

Softball has given me wonderful fun through the years. I set no records in the game, although there was one year my batting average rivaled Babe Ruth's.

(Editors' note: That was the year Ruth quit.)

Loyalty to the office team can cost a man a lot, as any married man knows. Wives don't care much about having the old man out spraining his knee on Sunday. One softball game years ago cost me considerable peace at home.

My wife arrived in Paris on a Saturday night on her first trip abroad. Our Paris staff had an important softball game scheduled for Sunday, and they were short one player.

Bright and early next morning a voice shouted outside our hotel window:

"Mrs. Boyle, can Boyle come out and play with us?"

Frances turned and looked at me in utter disbelief.

"The team really needs me, dear," I mumbled. I jumped into my clothes and ran out quickly. Well, it was a tough game, but we finally won 6-to-5 in a late rally.

The team, hot and sweaty, all came back to the hotel, and we fought the game all over again as we celebrated with champagne. Frances just stared at us in silence. When the other players left, I saw the expression in her eyes and said lamely:

"Honey, I knocked in the winning run."

"Do you realize," she answered, "that you are probably the only man in history heartless enough to desert his wife on her first morning in Paris just to play an old softball game? I still don't believe it."

And I know what she will say when I tell her I have retired from the game:

"Rover, as far as I am concerned you can go right on playing until you break all the bones in your silly head. A girl can only have her first morning in Paris once, and you made me spend it alone."

Jap Police Ready For May Day Riots

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese police laid plans today to thwart a repeat of the bloody anti-American mob violence that accompanied last year's May Day celebrations in Tokyo.

The fully mobilized police force will be on special duty throughout the nation May 1. Police in Tokyo, Osaka, Kyoto and other big cities will carry arms. Normally they carry only night sticks.

Communist and leftist-led rallies again are slated throughout the nation. Police said more than one million persons are expected to attend about 420 May Day meetings.

Govt. Security Program

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—How can a woman working in the Children's Bureau be a security risk? Or a man in the Fish and Wildlife Service? Both seem pretty far removed from anything that could hurt national security.

But President Eisenhower's new security program covers every government worker in every agency. It is far from a complete blueprint, as it stands, for getting rid of government employees who are considered security risks.

Details will have to be worked out. Some flaws may show up as it goes along, because Eisenhower did not lay down the same rigid rules for all agencies. He left much of the rulemaking up to them.

So the test of what is a security risk in the Children's Bureau may not be the same as a test in an agency like the State or Defense Department, where a man who talked or drank too much might do national damage.

Yet, Eisenhower said he wants uniformity in this program in order to treat all employees fairly and equally.

He has ordered the Civil Service Commission to oversee the program in order to get uniformity. But because of the varied nature of the agencies and their work, uniformity will hardly be achieved overnight.

At the very beginning of his new order Eisenhower said, "Whereas the interests of the national security require that all persons privileged to be employed in the departments and agencies of the government shall be reliable, trustworthy, of good conduct and character, and of complete unswerving loyalty to the U. S. . . ."

A man might be completely loyal but he might not be considered "reliable" from the standpoint of national security. It will be the job of agency heads to establish rules by which a man can be judged "reliable." That is a word which may need some precise definition.

Eisenhower must stand ultimate responsibility for the success or failure of this program although it was prepared in the Justice Department.

This is usual practice for any president since, with all his problems, he can't possibly be expert himself on every one of them but must rely on subordinates.

One thing seems clear: that a number of government employees year, he can be fired on security grounds without a hearing.

What about a man who got his job through appointment? If he has had it less than a year he can be sacked as a security risk without a hearing. That is, if he is not a veteran. If he's a veteran it's not clear at this time whether he will get a hearing.

If he's an appointed man and in his job over a year, it's still an unsettled question whether he can be fired outright as a security risk without a hearing.

competitive civil service examination must be given a hearing by a board created in his own agency if he's challenged as a security risk and if he has been in the government more than a year.

If he got his job through competitive examination but has been with the government less than a

Now the Talk Is What It Will Be Like

Northern Ohio Sure To Get Turnpike—Sometime

(Editor's note: The Ohio Turnpike Commission has had many a jolt on the rutty road toward actual construction of a toll superhighway across Northern Ohio. This last story in a series which has sketched the beginnings and battles of the turnpike project will attempt a peek into the future. It tries to answer the question, "What will the turnpike be like?")

By ART PARKS
COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Win, lose or draw in what may be its last major legal fight, the Ohio Turnpike Commission will build its 241-mile "dream highway" across Northern Ohio.

But don't get the family limousine gassed up right away for the first trip from the Pennsylvania border to the Indiana line via the turnpike just yet.

As a matter of fact, unless the family buggy is young and fresh, she may never live to roll on the Northern Ohio Turnpike.

Right now it looks like late 1955 would be a likely date for the trip.

All those statements are based on what might be called informed guesses.

Friends of the turnpike project are perturbed by their latest court fight. It is with the asphalt industry. The producers of so-called black-top paving have won an important round in their fight to force the commission to let them bid on turnpike paving.

The case is in the Supreme Court now. The commission seeks to upset an Appellate Court order requiring it to reverse its decision to take bids on Portland cement concrete only.

If the Supreme Court rules in favor of so-called "alternative" bids on asphaltic concrete, the work of preparing alternate specifications will increase the ultimate cost of building the turnpike. It also will cause further delays.

But after the shouting and the tumult dies, after the power shovels, bulldozers and trucks without number finish their job, what will it be like to ride the turnpike?

Those who have driven the 15-year-old Pennsylvania Turnpike or the newer New Jersey Turnpike know pretty well. This is for those who haven't:

From an approaching highway, you will drive in a wide circle toward the superhighway. You will stop briefly at an entry booth where you will pick up a ticket indicating where you entered the turnpike. This ticket you will surrender when you leave the toll road. When you give up the ticket, you will pay 1 1/4 cents a mile for your toll road travel.

From the entry ticket booth—which is a part of the whole setup they call an "interchange"—you complete the circle you started and come out on a lane parallel to two traffic lanes. This third lane will extend for several hundred yards, far enough to give you a chance to merge your car into traffic.

From that point until you reach your destination, you just drive. There will be no crossroads, no traffic lights. Occasionally there will be a reduced-speed zone at points of merging traffic.

Oncoming cars and trucks won't bother you. They will be on an entirely separate roadway—at least 40 feet from the roadway you travel.

Sounds lovely and convenient, but is it a luxury?

Not the way friends of the turnpike talk.

Pennsylvania's east-west traffic problem was mountains. So it took over a never-used railroad bed, complete with tunnels, and made a superhighway out of it.

Ohio's east-west traffic problem, turnpike advocates say, is mountainous trucks and a traffic congestion which makes a trans-Ohio motor trip almost a nightmare.

Highway engineers say a motorist travelling between Youngstown and Toledo, for instance, will save an average of one hour and 57 minutes by using the turnpike instead of Ohio 18 and U. S. 20. A big truck, over the same route, will save three hours and nine minutes.

A trip over nearly the whole length of the turnpike—231 miles from Youngstown to the Indiana line—will save an auto driver three hours and seven minutes and a trucker five hours even.

When the Ohio Turnpike is completed, only one link will be missing from a superhighway extending from Portland, Me., to Chicago. The missing link will be the Indiana Turnpike. It now is in the planning stage. It will hook up with the Ohio Turnpike only a few miles south of the Michigan border.

Some day, there may be other toll superhighways in Ohio. Gov. Frank J. Lausche has suggested a Toledo-Cincinnati route. Others would like to see a Cleveland-Columbus-Cincinnati turnpike.

But right now, the turnpike commission would be happy just to see "Project No. 1" well under way.

Crossword Puzzle Editor in Trouble

HANNOVER, Germany (AP)—The word went out today to Communist editors — watch those crossword puzzles.

One such puzzle in the local Communist sheet — Die Wahrheit (Truth)—called for a European statesman. The answer — Yugoslavia's Tito. He's been an arch-enemy of the Soviet bloc since he broke with the Kremlin in 1948.

The paper in a 400-word front page article lambasted the editor who approved the puzzle for a lack of "political vigilance" and commented: "This puzzle proves the imperialists strive to carry their dangerous views to the people by all possible means."

Willys Sale To K-F Closed
Makes Kaiser-Frazer One of Leading Firms

TOLEDO, O. (AP)—Purchase of the physical assets of Willys-Overland Motors, Inc., by Kaiser Mfg. Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Kaiser-Frazer Corp. was formalized Tuesday with the signing of final closing documents here in the Willys executive offices.

The deal established Kaiser-Frazer as one of the nation's major automobile companies, in terms of facilities, capital assets and consolidated sales volume. The name of K-F's new subsidiary will be Willys Motors, Inc., with headquarters in Toledo.

Officers of the new firm will be announced later this week, Edgar F. Kaiser, K-F president, said.

Kaiser emphasized that the automotive products of each company will continue to be marketed and serviced separately through the existing K-F and W-O distributor and dealer organization and it is intended to continue all of the facilities of each company in full operation in their present locations.

As a result of Tuesday's action, Kaiser-Frazer and its subsidiaries show consolidated assets of approximately 200 million dollars and consolidated net working capital of about 60 million.

Repatriated American Soldier Tells of Atrocities by Chinese

TOKYO (AP)—A repatriated American soldier today said Chinese troops ruthlessly sprayed 40 truckloads of wounded U. S. soldiers with burp guns, killing most of the nearly 800 helpless, screaming men.

Then the Reds bayoneted many of the survivors, Pfc. Tully Cox, 20, of Altoona, Ala., told newsmen in Tokyo Army Hospital.

Cox, a double amputee, was with the 32nd Regiment of the 7th Division during a retreat through hordes of Chinese Reds Dec. 2, 1950. He was one of about 20 men guarding the 40-truck convoy of wounded.

"There were about 20 wounded to each truck. We were trying to get them out to Hamhung, where the evacuation fleet was waiting," he said.

The convoy ran into a Chinese roadblock and was overwhelmed. Cox was wounded.

"Then the Chinese climbed up on the trucks and sprayed burp guns into the wounded. Then they bayoneted them. The wounded were screaming. They couldn't do anything."

Cox, only 17 when captured, said two buddies amputated both his feet with a penknife at a Red prison camp they called Death Valley. It is 30 miles north of Changjin Reservoir.

One of his feet had been smashed by a Chinese mortar shell and a rifle bullet cut through the bone of the other leg.

Two buddies helped Cox make the march from the ambush to Death Valley.

"The Chinese shot Americans who couldn't walk," Cox said. "I can't figure out why they didn't shoot me."

At Death Valley, he said, his buddies "took the remainder of my feet off. My feet were frozen and had turned black. I passed out a couple of times. There were two guys there to hold me. It was about 40 below zero."

"There were no medics at all, and my life depended on it. I was pretty well on the road to death. I can't remember what I thought of during the operation. It lasted 20 or 30 minutes."

During the five months he was in Death Valley, Cox said, there was no medical care and not enough food and "I lost 60 or 70 pounds."

The Chinese operated on Cox in the fall of 1951, after he was transferred to Camp No. 1 on the Yalu River. They sewed up the stumps of his legs, amputated just above the ankles.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 29, 1953

Loyal Opposition—(Laughter)

It now appears certain that obstructionists in the U.S. Senate will be able to use up the entire month of April with their filibuster against the bill to block federal seizure of state-owned property.

They started their talkathon on April 1. With the eager assistance of such windbags as Wayne Morse of Oregon, who has set a new world's record for saying nothing at great length, they have made a month-long mockery of representative democracy.

There have been times — and will be more times — when a filibuster was — and will be — a minority's only means of restraining a willful majority from trampling the rights of the people. This is not such a time.

The determined minority in this instance is not fighting for the people. Its only interest in the tidelands issue is as a means of fouling up the legislative schedule of a newly-constituted majority under Republican leadership. It is a dog-in-the-manger tactic.

Or as it might be printed in The Congressional Record, whose pages are being filled up day after day with guff at thousands of dollars a page, this is the left wing's version of loyal opposition (laughter).

Messers Schine and Cohn

There are days—many days—when Americans wonder if their government is collectively smart enough to represent them properly in foreign affairs.

Not only the government's acts but its representatives in foreign affairs reflect far too often the weakest of the American credos—that the United States is so lovable it has no need for tact.

At the moment, two fledgling Americans named Roy M. Cohn and Gerard David Schine are

Reactionary Liberals

By David Lawrence

Public Will Remember "Tidelands" Filibuster

The "filibuster" has come into its own. This method of "talking a bill to death" has been condemned as obstructive and as reactionary and as undemocratic, but today it has been given prestige and respectability by the "liberals" and "super-liberals" themselves.

Civil rights for minorities is one of the casualties of the misguided strategy of these "liberals." For now the latter cannot persuasively raise their voices in protest when legislation to insure civil rights may be proposed for a vote in the Senate and a filibuster results.

The argument on the "tidelands" oil bill has been going on during a 19-day filibuster in which opponents of the measure — many of them hitherto the champions of "civil rights" legislation as well as of proposed changes in Senate rules to limit debate — have made use of the filibuster as a device to delay, if not prevent, a vote on the pending "tidelands" bill.

Many a campaign speech last year and many a protest during the 1952 Democratic National Convention advocated changes in the Senate rules so as to limit debate. Denunciation of filibusters was put into the Democratic platform.

One would have thought that these protests were raised objectively and without thought that the events of these last few days would confirm the cry that a filibuster is wrong only when it is made against a bill being sponsored by your own side and that it is right when it is made to help defeat what your own party is fighting.

What is particularly surprising is that the Northern Democrats would so conspicuously demonstrate the wisdom of their Southern brethren in hitherto using the filibuster. Everybody knows that a substantial majority in the last Congress voted for the "tidelands" oil bill, and hence it is not a new issue or one which can be laid at the doorstep of President Eisenhower. Certainly he came out for the bill last year but he did so in recognition of the stand taken by the majority of his own party.

Even so, the vote cast by Democrats for the "tidelands" legislation does not justify the charge that the Republicans are guilty of "giving away" federal lands that "belong to the people." For then the Democrats are equally guilty according to the tally in the last the "tidelands" bill and 91 against it, when it passed by a total vote of 265 to 109.

Also, in the Senate on April 2, 1952, there were 24 Democrats for the bill and 24 Democrats against it, so it can be seen that a majority of the total number of Democrats in both Houses favored the "tidelands" legislation.

When the final conference report was voted on in the House, 94 Democrats voted for the bill and 70 against it. The Senate agreed to it by a voice vote, which indicated that the Democrats had no particular reason to make a record vote on the measure and didn't seriously object to its passage.

Congress has been delayed in getting started on important legislation at this session because a minority in the Senate has carried on a filibuster on this bill. The participants in the effort to defeat the bill disclaim, of course, any intention to filibuster, and one of them says that the purpose of the prolonged debate is only to "educate" the people on the issues.

It certainly doesn't take 19 days to do anything of that kind, especially on an issue as well known as the "tidelands" bill.

About the only point germane to the issue being made is that the proposed legislation would take away from all the people the oil that belongs to them and give it to a few states. But in those few states are a substantial number of Americans — not foreigners.

Hence, if the legislation does give to the state governments the right to lease the oil lands to their people, it is hard to convince any fair-minded person that it is all right for the state governments of Texas or Louisiana or Florida to lease mineral resources for development by its citizens within the land boundaries of the state, as they do now, but not within the three miles of submerged areas lying, for example, along the coast of Texas, as proposed in the bill.

The whole filibuster is an ill-advised step that will cost the "liberals" far more than they can possibly gain by their exhibitionism.

In the long run, the public will remember that it was the "liberals" who conducted this filibuster and consequently there cannot be much censure visited upon the "wicked reactionaries" when they make use of the same device to delay or defeat legislation obvious-

Where Are U.S. Coastal Boundaries?

By Richard Frykland

Congressmen debating the Hawaii statehood and tidelands oil bills have discovered no one really knows where the boundaries of the United States lie.

What is more, no one knows how to find out.

The problem is not an idle one. Ownership of countless millions of dollars worth of oil and other minerals depends on the precise location of the boundary and the shape of the three- and 12-mile limits are part and parcel of foreign affairs.

Or, if fixing the boundary is a matter for dispute between the federal government and the coastal states, the Supreme Court, under the Constitution, would be the arbiter. Already the Justice Department has filed suit against

But the catch to all this is that the lines of low tide and the outer limits of the inland bays have never been located. Until that line has been drawn, the three-and-12-mile limits cannot be defined.

LETTER FOR SPECIAL DELIVERY

Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: I see where you have sworn to get the American postal system back to something like an efficient, cooperative, alert friend of the people. You seem to think that the purpose of the Postoffice Department is to collect and deliver the mail properly. You apparently hold that correspondence can be encouraged. You even think the mailman should ring twice. These are pretty radical views after what has been going on in the Postoffice Department for the last decade.

The Postoffice in every village and city used to have a warm place in the hearts of the people. There was something friendly, helpful and neighborly about it. It became a cold, bureaucratic, fumbling center of indifference of late years. The outstanding example of the "So what!" mood was an order which forbade any further records which would make it possible to trace a lost SPECIAL DELIVERY letter.

Although a special delivery stamp costs 20 cents, the highest in Postoffice history, and is supposed to mean special handling, the lifelong rule that a carrier must get a receipt from the person accepting it was ABOLISHED!!!

The rule still stands, Arthur, and if you are leveling you will kill it and restore the requirement that a special - delivery letter be signed for. The excuse that it takes too much from the Postoffice workers and mailmen is a laugh. They stood it for a century without anguish.

--:

The theme song of people using special delivery stamps has been:

Put a "special" on your letter,
Twenty cents will be the cost;
It will slow it up completely—
If it doesn't get it LOST!

accessibly whisking their way from one European capital to another under the auspices of the Senate investigations subcommittee; specifically, Sen. McCarthy.

Cohn, 26, and Schine, 25, are causing a general raising of European eyebrows over their invisible qualifications to be investigators at all, let alone investigators for the U. S. Senate. In European practice, it is customary to let young men be seen but not heard in public affairs.

The European division of the McCarthy branch of the U. S. State Department, in other words, has been having a vastly greater impact in Europe than the Dulles branch, which is the one charged with official responsibility for representing the United States abroad.

Cities of Tomorrow

Canada's largest city jumped its size nearly 100 per cent on April 15 when 12 Torontot suburbs merged with the central city. Toronto proper, with a population of 678,000, became the Municipality of Greater Toronto with a population of 1,200,000.

This is a preview of what probably awaits metropolitan areas in the United States when they are freed from obsolete state laws which keep them from being governed and operated efficiently. The Toronto consolidation was carried out under the direction of the province of Ontario.

Henceforth, planning, zoning, recreation, water supply, sewage service, jails, hospitals and care of the aged will be dealt with on an area basis.

There will be central Toronto transportation and educational authorities. Powers not specifically delegated to a new council of 24 members—12 from Toronto proper, 12 from the 12 suburbs—will remain where they are now. It is not the purpose to create an awkwardly-large municipal structure but to take advantage of area-wide planning and procedures in matters which can benefit from a larger approach.

Whether in Canada or the United States, a city is the built-up area surrounding a central entity. Its residents have common problems and common interests. They should not be forbidden to make a common approach to their problems and interests by laws which are hostile, not friendly, to municipal welfare.

Sight Unseen

If a filibuster accomplishes nothing else, it provides an answer to a question of public policy:

Should legislative sessions be thrown open to exploitation by radio and television?

Nothing would please a filibusterer more than an audience. He would be spurred on to new feats of vocal endurance. A Huey Long with a dissertation on pot likker, or a Wayne Morse with a series of unrelated harangues would be relieved of the only handicap which bothers a stemwinder—the lack of listeners.

The legislative process, already on the verge of being gurned into a farce by men with no respect for deliberation or fair play, would be converted by radio and TV into an exhibition of the worst side of human nature—the side that comes into sight when exposed to a microphone or a camera.

Every tear destroys a million bacteria, says a scientist. No wonder so many people are crying about the flu.

Thus, 109 Democrats in the House voted on July 30, 1951, for ly desired by a majority it can be taken. New York Herald Tribune Syndicate

Fate of The Cities

By TRUMAN TWILL

Edna Ferber's crack about the filthiest city in the world when she returned to New York after a trip to Europe reddened more necks than the waterfront scandals.

But what she noticed isn't peculiar to New York. The same filth and garbage which offended Miss Ferber there are offending people in all other American cities.

Things are so bad there is a conspiracy of silence to keep them from being unbearable. By mutual consent, gagging and retching are forbidden among urban residents, out of consideration for weak stomachs.

But when someone who has been away comes back and is confronted with the pigsties which pass for cities in the United States, oops! That does it. It did it for Edna Ferber.

The reaction of New Yorkers was instantaneous and typical. They conceded the truth of everything she said and began to beat out her brains for saying it. They hated the filth as much as she hated it, but they had a proprietary interest in it since it was their filth—the filth they loved.

New York really isn't the world's filthiest city. Miss Ferber didn't mean to say that, because being the world's filthiest is a distinction reserved for urban rabbit warrens in countries where people must die like flies to make room for more people.

New York only a leading contender for the title of filthiest of all the so-called clean cities. And local pride dictates the claim that square yard for square yard and mess for mess it is no filthier than our own fair city.

Anyone who tries to make it appear there is anything second-rate about our own garbage, grime,

Tickets—With Courtesy

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Can a cop hand a traffic violator a ticket without irritating him? Perhaps it's impossible, but he should try. That's what Sgt. James Sprague, training officer at Kansas City's police academy, thinks. He is recommending the following code of etiquette to his rookies: Be courteous. Don't snarl at the victim, and above all don't needle him with wisecracks ("Flying a little low today, bud?" or the even hoarier, "Where's the fire?") Be serious, however, so the offender won't be unduly tickled by his brush with the law. Don't put your foot on the bumper of his car like a hunter on the back of a lion he just bagged. This somehow annoys motorists. Stand erect, in dignified posture as you write out the ticket.

contamination, slop, sediment, of-fal and mire is asking for a fight. Until someone makes a better claim, this is the dirtiest place of its size to be found anywhere, see.

In some happier day, when Americans grow tired of living in smut and smog, all cities will claim to be the neatest, cleanest, tidiest and most attractive. That is being done now in scattered instances, though without anything in particular to substantiate the claim. But, being different, the claim draws attention.

Meanwhile, most Americans will continue work 24 hours a day to make a shambles out of whatever city they happen to live in while a handful of overworked and under-equipped housekeepers try to pick up, wash away and sweep out. But white wings never catch up. Year after year they fall steadily behind, as they have since the beginning of time.

That is why all cities eventually are buried beneath their own debris and clutter. A thousand years later, archaeologists exhume them and try to understand what was the cause of death.

Edna Ferber knows. The man with the broom knows. The man on the mechanized street-sweeper knows. The dry cleaner and the laundryman know. Your nose knows. Your eye knows—the one that's full of grit.

Keep moving or they'll exhume you, too, with a loud exultant cry—"Hay, Jake, look what we found here—an aborigine!"

location of the nation's coastal boundaries. Until the lines are drawn many other questions must remain unanswered:

Who may supervise valuable offshore fisheries? How close to our shores may a foreign warship sail? How far out do our coastal defenses extend? Where can we stop smugglers of narcotics, aliens and liquor? What are our own rights in foreign waters?

Detailed answers do not exist. Nor is it known who should find the answer or how the proper party—whoever that may be—should go about finding it.

The nation has been able to rock along for 177 years with only rough estimates of the location of the seaward borders simply because the estimates have not been challenged. But passage of the tidelands bill will make it necessary to measure the United States down to the last square foot. Drillers will have to know who has jurisdiction over the undersea gushers they bring in.

Approval of Hawaii statehood will bring up this question: How is the 49th state to be defined geographically? Where will the boundaries be drawn in the case of a state consisting of 21 islands and numerous rocks and shoals stretching 1,910 miles across the Pacific?

According to law, the United States border at the Atlantic, Pacific and Gulf is the low-tide mark along shore, except in the case of some bays, estuaries and other pieces of water which are considered inland even though salty.

Stretching three miles out from the low-tide mark or from the outer limit of the bays is a marginal belt called "territorial waters" over which the United States has complete control and jurisdic-

The technique for drawing the first line has been debated for many years. For instance, should the low tide mark be taken to mean the lowest tide recorded or the average of the annual lowest tides or just the average low tide?

The difference between the three could be measured in hundreds of square miles. Where, exactly, is the south of a bay? Which bays should be considered inland? How deep must a dimple in the coast be before it can be called a bay? What do you do about islands—and the bits of land that build up and then wash away?

Four methods of fixing our boundaries have been advanced:

1—Ignore bays, fix the line along any low tide mark, and draw the three-mile and 12-mile limits to parallel the shoreline. The outer limits would have "bays" and "capes" the exact size and shape as the real ones on the coast.

2—Count any indentation less than 10 miles across as a bay. Stipulate that the shore and the lines drawn across the mouths of bays shall be the boundaries.

3—Count only "deep" indentations as bays, using an arbitrary formula to decide which is deep enough in proportion to the width of its mouth. Fix the three-and 12-mile limits by drawing arcs of circles with 3 and 12 mile radii from every point along the shore (that would smooth the outer lines and make them easier for a ship navigator to calculate). Each island would have its own inland border and its own three and 12-mile limits.

4—Draw straight lines between projecting points along the coast, and count all ocean, rocks, islands and bays behind the lines as inland territory. The three and 12-mile limits also would be straight lines.

Apparently any of these methods would be proper under international law. The straight line method (No. 4) is the most generous. It was approved recently by the International Court of Justice at The Hague. The Court did not even put a limit on the length of the straight lines. If there actually is no limit, the United States could claim almost half of the Gulf of Mexico as inland waters by drawing a line from Key West to the tip of Texas.

The other three methods would give the United States less area and create more technical difficulties.

But even before a method can be adopted, it must be decided whether the power to fix the boundaries lies with the president, Congress or the courts.

If fixing the boundary involves acquisition or relinquishment of territory for the United States, then Congress, under the constitution, would have the say. Obviously territory would be added or subtracted depending on where the final line is drawn.

Or, if fixing the boundary involves international relations, the president, under the Constitution, would make the decision. Clearly the status of five indentations claimed by the State as inland bays.

Congress has not expressed an opinion or jurisdiction. A House subcommittee set out to solve the puzzle last year, but after spending its money on numerous hearings, the group decided the problem was just too complex. The final subcommittee report raised a multitude of questions but attempted to answer none.

But many congressmen back the theory: The bigger the better. The United States should claim as much of the ocean bed as possible as inland waters, they believe.

At any rate, a problem that has been postponed for 177 years will have to be solved once and for all the first time an oil well roughly three miles from shore begins to gush.

According to an account in a newspaper published in 1870 a great snake hunt took place on the farm of Alexander Campbell in Big Island Township. The "hunting party" was headed by Captain Jackson Brady, who led his company down into the prairie grass, surrounded a 20-acre lot and set fire to the outer edge of the grass at 4 in the afternoon. The flames rolled up 10 feet high and as the fire advanced the snakes were driven to the center of the field. Some even attempted to spring through the flames, but the blaze was too heavy and they died in the attempt. At 6:45 p.m. the ground was burned over and Captain Brady went over the field of carnage and picked up the debris of the great army of snakes. By actual account there was found to be 13,934 snakes of all sizes. One black racer was said to be nine feet and four inches long and seven inches in circumference. It was said the snakes were so bad in the neighborhood that small children were afraid to go to school and even adults were attacked, several having been bitten on their boots. According to the account, the hunt was held on Sunday.

News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO — It was Thursday, April 29, 1943.

State heads of the War Savings Staff for Ohio paid tribute to Marion County in general and a number of individuals in particular for the "home front" job they had been doing through war bond sales when a dinner group of 70 persons assembled at Hotel Harding. A flag designating the county, the "champion" of Ohio for its March bond sales was formally presented.

Legislation prescribing heavy fines and prison sentences for operators of the "numbers" gambling racket had approval of the Ohio house or representatives and was on its way to the senate.

A banquet at Hotel Harding marked the second anniversary of the organization of Zeta Theta Chapter, Alpha Iota Sorority, and welcomed four new members, Miss Elizabeth Haberman, Miss Geneva Albert, Miss Josephine Bruno and Miss Evelyn Gassaway. Miss Martha Fabian was toastmistress.

Antiques Of All Types To Be Shown

More Than 20 Dealers To Have Exhibits At Coliseum May 15-17

More than 20 dealers will show items of varied interest at the Antiques Show and Sale to be held at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum May 15, 16 and 17 under the sponsorship of the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs.

Items to be displayed include unusual pieces of furniture, glassware, metal ware, china, weaving and dolls. In addition there will be an exhibit of flower arrangements in antique containers.

Proceeds from the show will be used for the Federation's expansion program which includes the remodeling of the club home to accommodate the organization's growing activities. The Federation which at the present time numbers more than 900 women in 30 participating clubs, has grown to this size in approximately 55 years.

The activities of the Federation are carried on principally through the various departmental chairmen, who meet with the Federation officers once a month to organize plans and projects to be carried out by the various member groups.

Of particular civic value is the work of the committee sponsoring the sale of articles made by the blind. For several years the Marion groups have placed first or second in the state and have used the prize money received to purchase equipment for the sight-saving class at George Washington School. Miss Helen Bowe is serving as chairman of this group.

Also active during the past year was the Committee on American Citizenship under the leadership of Mrs. B. N. Salzman. This committee, whose aim is to acquaint our people with the benefits of democracy and also to increase citizen participation in government, worked with the League of Women Voters in urging people to vote in last fall's election.

To encourage interest in art, a fine art's day display open to the community is held each year and was attended by several hundred women this year.

Other departments interested in civic welfare and the chairmen are: American Home, Mrs. Merle Hughes; home economics, Miss Ruth Kleinmaier; conservation, Mrs. John Jones Jr.; education, and public welfare, Mrs. Jess Stewart; child welfare, Mrs. Don DeLong; health, Miss Helen Lawler; public institutions, Mrs. Marian Clark; Pan-American Scholarship, Mrs. Henry Mickley; Girl Scouts, Miss Mary K. Stone; loan scholarships, Mrs. J. C. Turner; peace service, Mrs. Charles Ellery, and civil defense, Mrs. A. M. Hornby.

Letters From Our Readers

A MOTHER'S PROTEST

Editor of The Star: It seems this Korean situation is out of hand again. I wonder how long our boys would have to stay over in that forsaken land (who wants it?), if an order went out that all the men who are promoting this slaughter would be sent to replace the boys who are there now? I wager that something would be done and quick. I am the mother of a boy who is there. I taught him the things he knows about God and a country, to love it and fight for it if need be, but will someone tell me, why, all this sending our boys to a place that should not be so important to those who have their roots deep here in the land they love so well.

I have watched homes broken up. Heartbroken wives, crying children calling for their daddy. Which is the most important, keeping what is rightfully ours or giving "all" for, again I ask, what???

I am so discouraged to think how high the cost, for so little obtained. Surely, if mothers and wives got together on this thing and prayed along with some action, we can do something. Who said "The hand that rocks the cradle rules the world," (yes???) Come on moms, wives, sweethearts, let's do something. Go to God first, man next. . . .

Find Sergeant Had Reason To Go AWOL

Ft. ORD, Calif. (AP)—A court martial review board has agreed with Sfc. Earl Jones, 33, that 20 months without pay is enough to make a man go AWOL.

A Ft. Ord spokesman said yesterday that a dishonorable discharge imposed on Jones last month has been rescinded and his sentence of six months imprisonment is being suspended.

Jones, a decorated veteran of 9½ years service and the World War II European campaign, went AWOL from Ft. Bliss, Tex., last June. He said he hadn't been paid for 20 months because of a mixup in records and was having a hard time supporting his wife and child.

Many Ohio Cities Turn Back Clocks

Daylight Savings Time
Little Help to Farmers

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—It's day-Saturday to add an hour's worth of light savings time again, and Ohio's farmers don't like it. The cows don't know the difference, they say, and it's quite a problem for them to switch their milking schedules.

Clocks in many Ohio cities were turned back an hour at midnight to add an hour's worth of daylight during the summer months. Farmers say they have to interrupt their work if they want to get to town before the stores close.

A check of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, airlines, railroads and telephone companies shows these Ohio cities among those on Eastern Daylight Savings Time: Akron, Alliance, Amherst, Ash-tabula, Aurora, Avon Lake, Bar-ber-ton, Bedford, Bellaire, Berea, Bridgeport, Canton, Chardon, Cleveland, Columbiana, Conneaut, Cuyahoga Falls, East Liverpool.

East Palestine, Elyria, Garretts-ville, Girard, Hiram, Hubbard, Hudson, Jefferson, Kent, Lake-wood, Leetonia, Linndale, Lisbon, Lorain, Madison, Mantau, Massil-lon, Niles, Oberlin, Orwell.

Painesville, Portland, Ravenna, Rittman, Salem, Steubenville, Ver-milion, Wadsworth, Warren, Wells-ville, Willoughby, Youngstown, Carrollton, Wellington, Seville, Brewster, Fostoria, Piqua, Troy, East Liverpool, Strasburg and An-dover.

Niles will remain on Standard Time until sometime in May. Oth-ers made the switch after Saturday midnight.

The C of C said the list is only partial. About 300 Ohio cities and villages received a questionnaire about their summer times. Only 75 have answered, the C of C said, but a complete list will be avail-able May 15.

N.Y. Judge Rules
Child's Religion
Can't Be Changed

NEW YORK (AP)—A judge says a 4-year-old child's religious affil-iation cannot be changed unless both parents consent.

In a case described as unpre-cedented in New York courts, Jus-tice Jacob Panken, ruled yesterday in children's court that Dennis Glavis, 4, is Jewish, not Roman Catholic.

Panken said the boy shortly after birth was circumcised according to the tenets of the Jewish reli-gion, with the consent of both par-ents. Last September the father had the boy baptized into the Roman Catholic church, but the judge said this was done without the mother's consent.

The justice added that since the boy is not old enough to reason for himself, the Jewish circum-cision, which took place first, must take precedence over the baptism. Panken's ruling was, in effect, a decision against the boy's father, John Glavis, 50, who had sought to have the child removed from a Jewish foster home.

Glavis is a member of the Greek Catholic church, which recognized the Pope in Rome as the head of Christendom. His wife Gertrude, 39, is Jewish. The two are not liv-ing together.

CHALLENGE TO THE INDUSTRY
-the new GMC 400-27 that outpowers and outclasses its field

GMC's new 18,000 GVW hauler not only dwarfs trucks of 16,000 and 17,000 GVW, but overshadows—and under-prices—those rated at 19,000.

In fact, the GMC 400-27 is designed to outhaul any truck up to 19,500 GVW. Its new engine of progressive design is stripped of excess weight, yet built stronger to absorb the stress of really high compression. It gives you brisker response, more power and mileage from regular gas.

It includes, as standard equipment, many features that are optional at extra cost on other trucks.

As a tractor—or as a truck—it can in-crease your hauling ability, give you impressively better equipment—and save you both purchase and operating money to boot.

100 GROSS HORSEPOWER—on moneysaving single carburetion. Valve-in-head engine, 270 cubic inch displacement, 7.5 to 1 compression ratio.

2-SPEED ELECTRIC SHIFT REAR AXLE—15,000 pounds capacity, is coupled with a 4-speed Synchro-Mesh transmission, putting 8 forward speeds at the driver's command. (Single-speed axle available at a saving; 5-speed transmission optional at extra cost.)

30,000 GCW—137" or 149" wheelbase in tractors; 161", 179" or 197" wheelbase in trucks (9- and 12-foot platform or stake bodies optional).

ALSO STANDARD EQUIPMENT: 4,500 pound capacity front axle—Hydrovac-actuated brakes—Morraine M-400 main and con-necting rod bearings—Tocco-hardened crankshaft.

The Diamond Store Of Marion MAY'S DIAMONDS & WATCHES MARION'S OLDEST JEWELERS

April 29, 1953

To Our Customers:

It isn't often we find it necessary to discuss ethics in our business. After all, when you've lived and worked in Marion for nearly 40 years as we have, you get to know a lot about people and a lot about your particular business. Our policies are founded on experiences we have enjoyed through our many, many years of doing business here in Marion. However, we have become alarmed at the "Rash of Sales" which have been breaking out recently. Many people have many different ideas about sales. Our ideas haven't changed through the years. Once every year we have a genuine, bonafide Anniversary Sale. It isn't something we dreamed up over night. This sale gives us the opportunity to reduce prices on merchandise which we have carried from one season to another. It also gives us an opportunity to mark down prices on our regular top quality merchandise.

The thing we want to emphasize is these mark-downs are honest-to-goodness mark-downs. We can't reduce prices like this very often because if we did, we'd go broke. We don't "import" cheap, gaudy jewelry which is placed on our counter only during a sale period and then suddenly disappears from stock.

The items we place on sale are those which you see in our store day in and day out. Every article we sell carries not only a reliable manufacturer's guarantee but our own personal unqualified guarantee.

You've heard the old adage, "You can fool some of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all of the people all of the time." You also know that you have never been fooled or led astray on any of the purchases you have ever made in our store.

Tomorrow we are launching our 34th Anniversary Sale. This will be an honest and sincere sale. We never have and we are not going to start now selling inferior quality merchandise. Yes, it's safe, it's sound and it's to your advantage to shop at May's for real values. You won't go wrong if you continue to trust your good, old reliable friends at the May Jewelry Company. We've been in business for 34 years and plan to stay in business for another 34 years and more.

Sincerely yours,

Sol Freed

P.S.—We will never be knowingly undersold . . . even our everyday prices are as low or lower than other so-called sale prices.

Woman Hurt In Collision Of Two Cars

Two Other Accidents, One a Hit-Skip, Reported by Police

One person was injured in one of three traffic accidents, another of which was a hit-skip, investigated Tuesday by Marion police.

Mrs. Clara May Noggle of 720 Wood St. received cuts on her knees and a bruised right arm and shoulder in a collision at E. Mark St. and Lincoln Ave. at 12:31 p.m. Tuesday. The collision involved cars driven by Thomas T. Noggle, 40, in which Mrs. Noggle was a passenger, and Paul H. Boggs, 25, of 348 Oak St. Noggle claimed he was stopped at the time of the accident and Boggs told police a front kingpin on his car broke a few feet from the intersection. Police said there were 72 feet of skid marks caused by Boggs' car. Boggs was traveling east on Mark St. and Noggle was headed north on Lincoln Ave.

Mrs. Noggle was taken to City Hospital in a Boyd ambulance and was treated for her injuries but was not admitted.

The hit-skip accident occurred on N. Main St. at 8:38 p.m. Tuesday when a car identified as owned by Lefe Wheeler of Maumee struck a Safety Cab Co. taxi driven by James J. Simpkins, 27, of 286 Clinton St. Simpkins reported the accident at the police station. He said he was double parked in front of the D and D Lunch restaurant and the other car hit the taxi while attempting to pass. Police Chief Tom Coon said today the hit-skip car was stopped in Perrysburg by highway patrolmen. He said there were three persons in the car and it's believed that a juvenile was the driver of the car. The left rear fender and side of the taxi were damaged.

A car driven by Mary Ann Miller of Plain City was damaged when struck from the rear by a car driven by Harold E. Gray, 31, of 318 Glad St. at Main and Center Sts. at 4:55 p.m. Tuesday. Both were traveling north on N. Main St. Gray's car was also damaged.

Farm Tractor Outfits Driven By Man, Wife Hit by Auto

Two farm tractors and an auto were involved in an accident on Route 30-S five miles east of Caledonia Tuesday at 12:33 p.m., according to the local post of the highway patrol.

The car driven by Albert L. Burt, 75, of Iberia, struck the left rear tire of the first farm tractor, driven by Thomas Fabian, 37, of near Gallon, as he attempted to pass the tractor. Fabian was knocked off the tractor which crashed into a field. The car then hit the rear of a wagon pulled by the second tractor, driven by Mrs. Thomas Fabian.

Fabian suffered an abrasion of the right arm and bruises on the left leg, but was not treated. Damage to the tractor driven by Fabian was minor, while the wagon bed of the farm outfit driven by his wife was sprung. The car received severe damage to the right front grille, bumper, hood, and radiator.

Burt was arrested on a charge of unsafe operation and was cited to appear in Municipal Court Thursday.

In a one-car mishap on Route 182, two miles east of Nevada, at 6:50 p.m. Tuesday, Rachel Fox, of Bucyrus, escaped injury when her car overturned on the berm, after she lost control of the vehicle. The right side and top of the car were badly damaged.

At 5:05 p.m. Tuesday, westbound cars driven by Howell G. Thomas, 23, of Marion, and David J. Houtz, 73, of near Marion, collided on Route 739, one mile west of Marion. Dickey Talks To Rotary On City Schools

Describes Advances Made in Recent Years in Buildings

"What Happened To the Little Red School House?" was the subject on which Lester L. Dickey, superintendent of Marion city schools and president of the Kiwanis Club, addressed the Rotary Club Tuesday at Hotel Harding.

He said Marion now has around 6,000 students enrolled in elementary and secondary schools, and has spent approximately $5 million in recent years on new schools and improvements in the school system.

"In my opinion this is money very wisely spent," he told his Rotary audience.

"There is no purpose in tearing down fire traps and building million dollar school buildings unless you improve the program," the superintendent declared. "While we have come a long way from the little red school house, our Board of Education must still look to the future. It is the backing of groups like Rotary that makes it possible to have a program such as we now have. Public interest in our school has been intensified by projects such as business - industry - education day and vocational conferences."

Dickey said the whole community has reason to be proud of the educational system that it has fostered.

A visiting Rotarian was Ted McLachlan of London, Canada, attending the meeting with Robert Bagley, vice president of the Ber-lou Mfg. Co.

Guests from foreign lands were Thomas Robbins and Ronald Clement, both of Leigh Creek, South Australia, guests of Maurice Cornell, vice president in charge of sales of the Marion Power Shovel Co., who are touring the plant; John Goossens of Diakarta, Indonesia, distributor for the Huber Mfg. Co. in Indonesia, guest of George Howser, export manager of the Huber Co.

Other guests were James W. Campbell of LaRue, Karl D. Bechtel and Earl Greer, both of Marion.

Student reporter from Harding High School journalism class was Don Carey.

Auction of Beatty Antiques, Paintings Draws Big Crowd

Approximately 300 persons turned out for the public auction of the furniture and art pieces of the late Mrs. Olive A. Beatty which started at 10 o'clock this morning at the Beatty home on S. Vine St.

Knittle and Rose of Ashland and Canton are auctioneers. Scheduled to be sold were French, Italian, Victorian and Empire pieces of furniture, eighteenth and nineteenth century paintings, oriental rugs, crystal chandeliers, Baldwin baby-grand piano, and other items of antique or artistic merit.

Mrs. Beatty died Oct. 29, 1952. She was the widow of William C. Beatty, a Marion art and antique dealer who died Jan. 8, 1950.

Her will, which stipulated that a large share of the estate be used to establish a fund for the "purpose of providing aid to animals of all kinds, particularly cats and birds," has been challenged by a group of relatives.

Marion Youths Who Stole Auto Put on Probation

Two Marion juveniles, who admitted stealing an automobile in Marion April 19 and wrecking it in Kentucky, were placed on indefinite probation by Judge Edward J. Ruzzo in a Juvenile Court hearing Tuesday morning after one boy's father and a foster-parent of the other boy promised to pay for the repair of the car.

The two youths, one 16 and the other 12, took the car from in front of 175 W. Walnut St. while the owner, R. O. Schell of near Bucyrus watched from inside the house, on April 19.

After becoming involved in an accident early the following day near Grayson, Ky., the boys were picked up by Kentucky officials who held them for the Marion County sheriff.

The older boy was placed on probation with his mother in Marion, while the younger boy was placed on probation with a Union County relative.

Youth Admits "Crime Wave" In Court

Will Be Sent To Juvenile Research Bureau in Columbus

A 15-year-old youth who launched a "one boy" crime wave in Marion was ordered committed to the Classification Center of the Bureau of Juvenile Research at Columbus today following a hearing in Marion County Juvenile Court.

The youth admitted to the court that he had broken into a total of 11 residences in the city between April 10 and April 21, when he was taken into custody by police.

Police Chief Tom Coon said the boy readily admitted breaking into the houses, located in widely scattered sections of the city, ransacking them and taking whatever money he could locate.

Operating on a "semi-professional" basis, he followed a plan of going to a darkened house late at night and ringing the doorbell or knocking loudly several times. If no one answered, he proceeded to break in. If some one came to the door he posed as a magazine salesman and hurried off when no sale was made.

Later, he read news stories of his escapades and told police after his arrest that he enjoyed reading the articles partly to see if his actions and the amounts he took were accurate.

Actually his "crime-wave" netted him only a few dollars, police said.

He was committed to the Bureau by Juvenile Court Judge Edward J. Ruzzo. At the present time there are no facilities available there for additional commitments and he will be held at the Marion County Detention Home until admitted to the Columbus institution.

Meanwhile, another youth, a 13-year-old boy, who confessed to breaking into a grocery store is scheduled for a hearing Thursday in Juvenile Court. He was taken into custody April 23 by Marion police and later admitted under questioning that he broke into Guyton's Grocery Store at 340 N. Greenwood St. April 21.

Total loot in the burglary was $1.60 in pennies and about 50 cents worth of merchandise. All was recovered with the arrest of the youth, police reported. He is also held in the Detention Home.

DRIVER ARRESTED

first two were overruled in the district's opinion.

The third assignment of error pointed to the court's refusal for a new trial. After finding the lower court erred on that motion, the district judges made no finding on the fourth assignment of error.

The fourth charged that the sentence imposed by the court was beyond the limit of the law.

Arter filed a motion for a new trial last September just after Mrs. Watson was sentenced. The motion was overruled by Judge Ruzo before he passed sentence.

Mrs. Watson received the sentence just after her husband, Merton Watson, was found not guilty of a similar charge last Nov. 28. He was represented by Carter M. Patton.

The charges were filed against the pair after an investigation into the death of their six-month-old daughter.

Children Kept At Home

Judge Ruzo ordered four Watson children placed in the Marion County Children's Home until Mrs. Watson "definitely demonstrated to the court that you are again ready, willing and able to exercise the privilege of motherhood."

The court also ruled that should the probation department decide to return the children to their parents the home would be under the supervision of the probation department for an indefinite period. The four children have been living at the Home since the trials. Officials of the Home said today three of the children were returned to their parents Monday and the fourth will be returned Thursday.

"That Extra Something" was the subject of the guest speaker, the Rev. Harvey C. Hahn, pastor of Otterbein Evangelical United Brethren Church in Dayton, O. In addition to his duties as pastor of a congregation of more than 700 families, he conducts a weekly radio program over Dayton Station WING and he is active in 30 civic and church activities.

In a talk sparkling with humor, he spoke on "that extra something" which he said is necessary to succeed in business and life. Citing an example in religious, he told of starting an 8 a. m. Sunday service in addition to the regular service. Soon, the church had two large congregations, he said. Today, the ten largest churches in Dayton have duplicate services. "They found they had to offer that extra something," he said.

It was a return visit to the 25-Year Club for the Rev. Mr. Hahn. He spoke before the group at its annual banquet three years ago.

The program opened with invocation by club member Harry C. Williams and the entire group was led in singing "America" by Merle Lashey, another club member. Sheridan Severns said benediction. smiled as they stepped from the hospital plane into a throng of beautiful nurses, thinly clad hula dancers and official greeters.

Two Air Force wives draped colorful flower leis around the neck of each man and gave them a big hug.

The eight litter patients were lowered from the belly of the big plane. Some others leaned on husky medics as they limped down the gangway.

First man off the plane was Cpl. Donald K. LeGay of Leominster, Mass.

As each left the plane he was welcomed by an Air Force officer who called his name over a public address system. A crowd of 300 or more persons, most of them military dependents, cheered loudly and grass-skirted hula girls swayed to rhythms of an Air Force band.

Some patients blushed and shuffled in embarrassment as they saw the hula dancers. They stood at the foot of the gangway for a few moments while some 50 photographers took pictures. Then they were whisked away for medical checkups and rest.

U.S., Chinese Sit Back, Let Koreans Fight

Action Along Front
Slackens During
Panmunjom Talks

SEOUL (AP)—American and Chinese divisions virtually sat back on their own muddy battle lines again today in a lull probably resulting from the renewed armistice talks.

The two major forces in the Korean War left what little fighting there was to Republic of Korea and North Korean soldiers.

There were only light patrol clashes involving squads and platoons, mainly on the rugged Eastern Front. Two South Korean raider patrols cracked into North Korean troops in darkness. The ROKs estimated 22 Reds killed in one fight and 16 in another.

The Eighth Army reported only brief contact between American and Chinese divisions on the Central and Western Fronts.

In the Air, heavy clouds and rain grounded almost all Allied attack planes. During the night four B26 light bombers blasted artillery guns shooting at Navy ships of besieged Wonsan.

Asked if there is any significance in the current lull, an Allied officer recalled previous slack periods in 1952 and 1951, but he also conceded the current lull could be tied to the truce talks at Panmunjom.

However, both Lt. Gen. Maxwell Taylor, Eighth Army commander, and Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. Far East chief, have denied officially there is a holddown on aggressive combat operations while the truce talks are in progress.

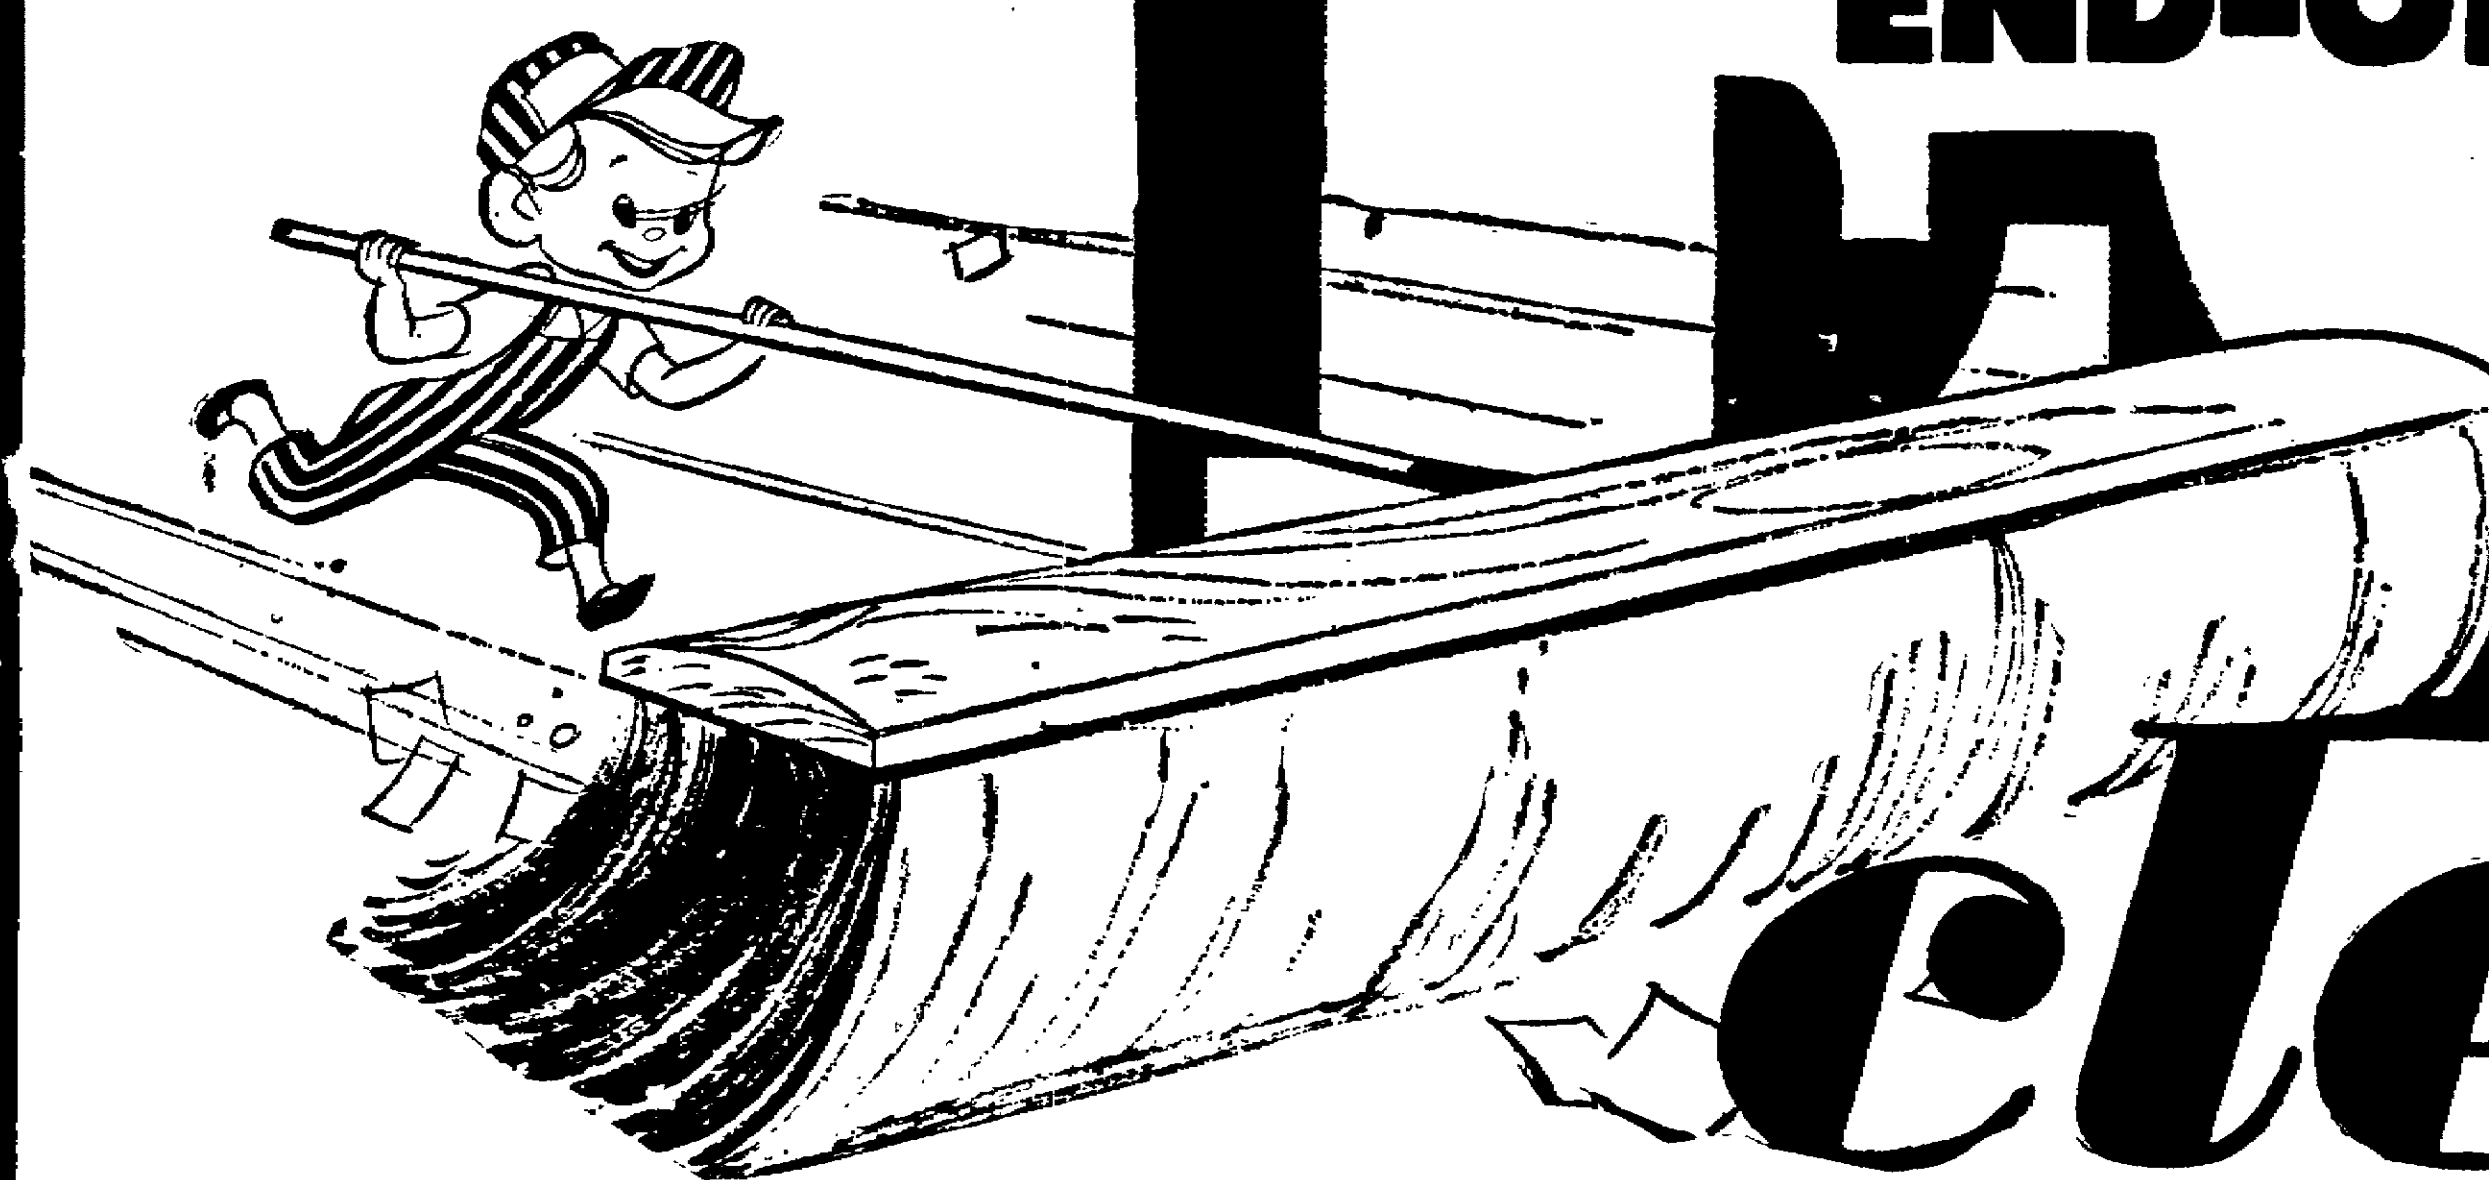

The U. N. Command also denied back in November, 1951, that it had issued a "seldom fire" order to troops on the front. The order existed then, however, and an armistice seemed possible—as it does now.

Attack Laws On Fishing In Lake Erie

Being Regulated Out Of Business, Say Commercial Anglers

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—A representative of commercial fishermen in Lake Erie says, "I don't think we can survive in business even if you don't pile any more laws on us."

Richard Surrand of Sandusky, chairman of the Lake Erie Commercial Fishing Association, made the statement Tuesday night before the House Conservation Committee. He was testifying on a bill which would ban commercial fishing in Sandusky Bay and within a five-mile radius of the bay's mouth.

"You've never had as many fish in the lake as you have today," he said, "but you can't keep going if it costs you $2,000 to catch $1,800 worth of fish."

When Surrand testified his entire operation is in the main lake, Rep. Dailey Turner (R-Seneca) remarked:

"Really, then, we'd be doing you a favor if we not only banned fishing in the bay but in the lake as well."

"The way things are going — the prices we are getting for the fish — you would," Surrand retorted.

Charles Nielson, bay commercial fisherman, told the committee his firm has run afoul of commercial fishing laws three times in the last two years, but he commented: "You can't control the people who work for you."

He said solution of the bay fishing problem "is clarification of present laws."

Crime Rate Up In Ohio Cities

WASHINGTON (AP)—Crimes committed in Ohio cities rose by 1,269 last year, but their percentage increase was well below the national average.

The annual FBI report on crime across the nation showed that police in Ohio reported 66,466 offenses in 150 Ohio cities in 1952 as compared with 65,197 the previous year.

This represents a rise of nearly two per cent, but the national average went up over eight per cent. The FBI report showed these figures on crimes of a serious nature in Ohio's cities (1952 totals first):

Murder and non-negligent manslaughter, 200 and 198; negligent manslaughter, 149 and 124; rape, 320 and 389; robbery, 2,033 and 1,729; aggravated assault, 1,931 and 1,561; burglary, 13,534 and 12,440; larceny, 42,510 and 42,718; and auto theft, 5,789 and 5,708.

No statistics were provided for rural crime in Ohio.

Recent research has disclosed that technically Ohio never has been made a state, although it has been functioning as such since 1803. The subcommittee voted unanimously to admit Ohio to the union.

Brazil OKs Aid Pact With U.S.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Brazil's military aid agreement with the United States needed only President Getulio Vargas' signature to become law today. The Senate approved the pact last night by a 37-7 vote.

The agreement, providing military aid by the two countries to each other under the U. S. Mutual Security Act, was approved by the Chamber of Deputies last month despite opposition by leftists and extreme nationalists. It had been negotiated in March, 1952.

Plans Lands With No Brakes, 66 Korea Vets Safe

ATTERBURY AIR FORCE BASE, Ind.—A United States Overseas Airlines plane, delayed by an emergency landing in Nebraska, brought 66 homeward-bound Korea veterans to Atterbury Air Force Base early today.

The plane landed at 1:15 a. m. (EST) and the soldiers were transferred by bus to nearby Camp Atterbury. From there they will go to their homes. Most of them live in Ohio and Indiana.

The DC4 airliner had made an emergency landing Tuesday at Grand Island, Neb. A municipal airport spokesman at that city said the hydraulic system of the plane failed and it was landed by using the tail as a brake. There were no injuries and little damage.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Demand for steels encouraged a rise in the stock market today—the fourth straight advance.

Throughout the list the gains went to between 1 and 2 points at the best with the downside strictly limited.

Business was not booming by any means, but the demand seemed to spread as prices advanced.

Along with the steels, higher prices were paid for the motors, railroads, aircrafts, and some oils, coppers, chemicals, utilities and radio-television issues.

Also higher were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Boeing, United Aircraft, Zenith Radio, American Telephone, Kennecott Copper, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, American Cyanamid, Standard Oil (NJ), and U. S. Gypsum.

one of the strangest stories of the war—a story of far greater implication than even the brutality of the "Peoples' Culture" behind the bamboo curtain.

FOR THIS released GI is Paul Schnur, Jr.—and he is the lead to an interwoven network of Soviet devotees operating in America even while the Soviet supplied the enemy with the materiel with which to kill and capture young Schnur's buddies.

Schnur, the son of Paul Schnur, Sr., who spends a considerable amount of his highly politicalized time trying to free two of Russia's atomic spies from a death sentence in Sing Sing, has written some strange letters.

In some of these letters to his parents, Schnur called his buddies "reactionary". They distrusted their Sovietized Chinese captors. (This is as good a place as any to report that the Chinese beat up our GIs who tried to argue with those who went over to the enemy's Communist philosophy.)

As a return address on one of these apparently guided missives Schnur, Jr., gave his return address as the "Chinese Peoples' Committee for World Peace, Peking, China."

HOW DID Schnur, Jr., get to the enemy capital? Or if he didn't and the Chinese forged this address, why doesn't he denounce the trick?

The "Peoples' Committee for World Peace" is a Soviet propaganda front which has accused the U.S. of every vile crime its prolific and imaginative propagandists can concoct, including the germ warfare hoax.

One of these letters from Schnur, Jr., was a 94-name petition written along the familiar "peace" propaganda lines. Schnur, Sr., turned it over to Harry Bridges for good use. Testimony on Page 163 of the 1947 un-American Activities In California Report quotes a witness as saying he was introduced "to such leading Communists as Harry Bridges and Louis Goldblat . . . Paul Schnur, Secretary of the Local CIO Council (it has since been purged by the CIO)."

Schnur, Sr., who was closely allied with the pro-Soviet Progressive party and who is a business associate of that party's presidential candidate, Vincent Hallinan (who prepared canned broadcasts for the Soviet satellites), is now working with Harry Bridges on a new project.

They're planning to launch a new party which will attempt to exploit the latest "peace" line of the Soviets and pull AFL and CIO unions into a seemingly innocent front.

SCHNUR, SR., is also an associate of one Hugh Bryson, a rather effete maritime leader who traveled across Europe and Scandinavia some years back urging waterfront workers to dump our stuff into the Atlantic rather than unload it.

Schnur, Sr., also is linked with leaders of other pro-Soviet line unions such as the United Electrical Workers, which also plans shortly to start shouting for a new labor party. One of this union's members is a Mid-Westerner named Louis A. Wheaton, who went to Peking not so long ago and became a "deputy secretary general of the Peace Liaison Committee of the Asian and Pacific Regions."

This is the outfit which is connected with the "Chinese Peoples' Peace," which appeared on the return address of Schnur Jr.'s letter.

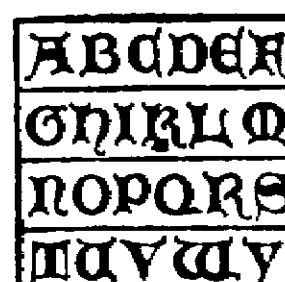

If our dead and tortured soldiers mean anything to us, all this needs to be aired by a Congressional investigation such as is being asked for by Illinois' Rep. Timothy Sheehan and Massachusetts Senator John Kennedy.

No. 9: Henry III. Ruled England 1216-1272.

Ancient engraving of Henry III, the first king buried at Westminster Abbey.

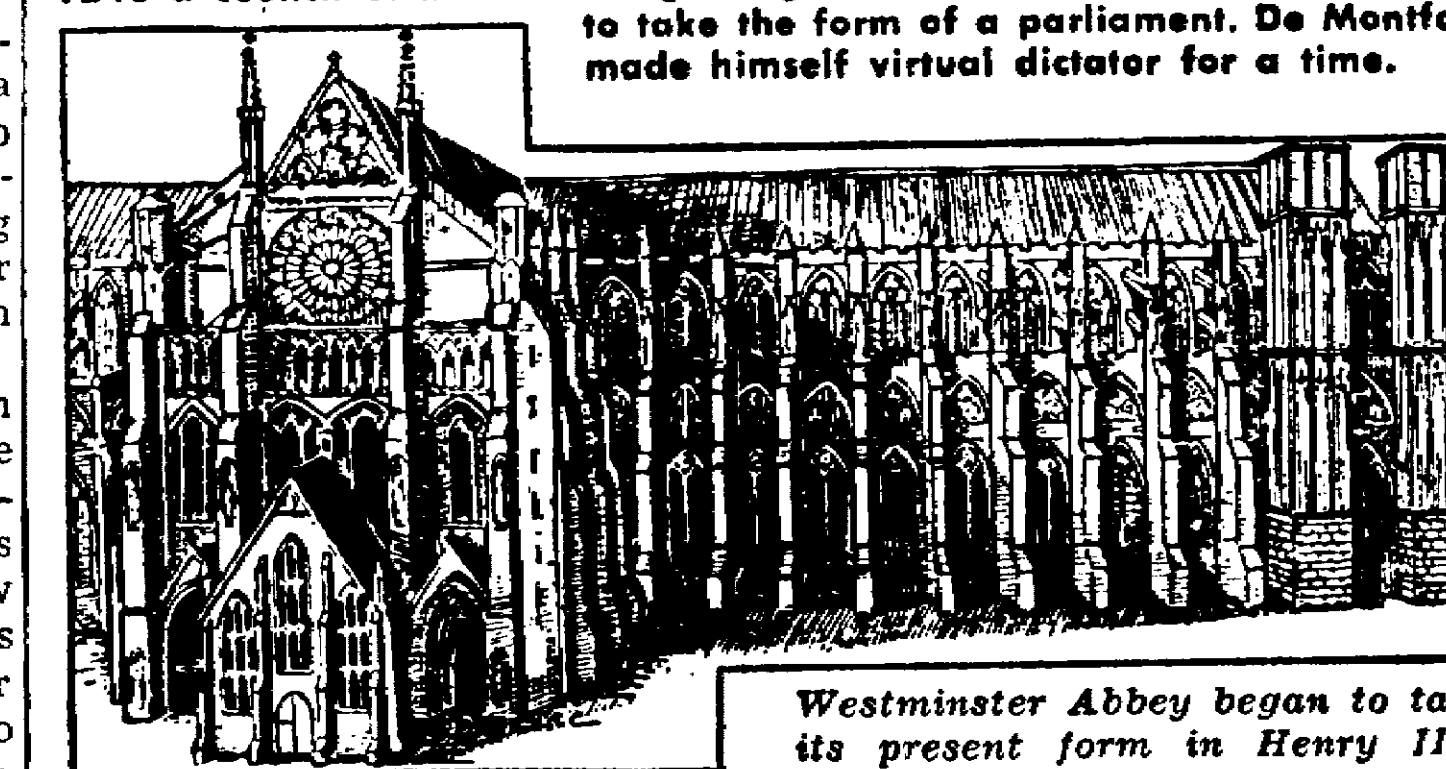

Alphabet in Henry's time.

Simon de Montfort [1] called first representative English parliament to Oxford in 1265.

Born: 1207, eldest son of John. When Henry became king at 9, the coronation took place at Gloucester. The eastern half of England was dominated by rebellious barons and French invaders. Henry had no power until he was 19, for a regency prevailed till 1227. His subsequent endeavors to regain foreign dominions lost under John were unpopular at home, and his reign was marked by an upsurge of English nationalism, and further challenges to the "divine right of kings." About 1240 a council of barons brought together by Simon de Montfort began to take the form of a parliament. De Montfort made himself virtual dictator for a time.

Westminster Abbey began to take its present form in Henry III's reign, as this old engraving shows.

Annual Sheep Assoc. Banquet Held at Ashley

One hundred and seventy-nine persons attended the eighth annual meeting and banquet of the Delaware-Morrow-Marion County Sheep Improvement Association at Elm Valley School in Ashley Friday night.

Max Drake, manager of Northern Ohio Breeders' Association at Tiffin, took the group on a trip to Denmark, Norway, Germany and England by means of colored slides taken on his trip with Mrs. Drake last summer to the international convention of artificial breeding association in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Alpha Lepp, chairman of the improvement association, was toastmaster and presented C. F. Flickinger, fieldman for the Columbus Producers Cooperative Livestock Association, who discussed the past year's operation at the Ashley lamb pool. A total of 5,754 lambs were handled with a total value of $114,169. This is the largest number since 1949. The range in price since the first pool held on July 8 divides into three periods. From July 8 to Sept. 12 the range was $28.50-30.50. From Sept. 26-Nov. 28 the range was $24.75-27.75. From Dec. 19 to April 17 the range was $22.75-24.50.

There was an increase of nine per cent in number of consignors over last year and twice as many wool lambs sold as a year ago. It was brought out that consignors using good management practices of parasite control and improved pasture and feeding practices were getting the higher return for their lambs.

Music was furnished by Keith Bringle, soloist, with Connie Gardner accompanying at the piano.

Directors elected for three year terms from Morrow County: Ted McClarren, Galion, and Harry Wood, Cardington; Delaware County, Arthur Jewell, Centerburg, and W. G. McGonigle, Leonardsburg; Marion County, W. J. Lindstedt, Waldo.

GIs Who Fell For Communism to Get Mental Treatment

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department has decided that U. S. soldiers instilled with communism by Red techniques while held prisoner need mental treatment.

It is therefore flying a "small group" of these men, returned under the prisoner exchange agreement, to an Army hospital for "special consideration as well as medical treatment in their preparation for return to society."

The men, "who have shown symptoms of having succumbed to Communist indoctrination while they were held captive in North Korea," are en route from Tokyo to the big Valley Forge Army Hospital near Philadelphia, the department said in an announcement last night.

Top-level discussions among Pentagon officials and between them and other government agencies were held before it was determined a formal, public announcement would be made that "psychical" as well as medical treatment would be given the group.

The announcement contained no indication of how long the men involved might require treatment. It said families of the soldiers would be notified immediately upon their arrival and would be "encouraged to visit them."

Mops and Make-Up

The American housewife, believe it or not, still puts more money and time on her floor than her face.

INEZ ROBB

The Nation's most famous no pressure, low pressure, door-to-door salesman, the Fuller brush man, can attest to this fact. Although the Fuller Brush Company added a famous line of cosmetics to its salesman's kit six years ago, the American housewife still spends more to beautify her home than herself.

"The national average in volume is still two-thirds for household products, brushes, brooms, mops, polishes and cleansers, and one-third for cosmetics," according to Fred C. Wolfe, district manager.

Anthony Storniola, the nation's and the country's No. 1 Fuller brush man, nodded agreement, as we sat in Mr. Wolfe's elegant, wood-paneled mid-town offices.

TO THE American woman, cleanliness is really next to godliness, whether face or floor, both men agreed. And that is true whether she lives at the corner of Ritz Ave. and East St. or down by the gas house in Greenport, Brooklyn.

Mr. Storniola knows because his we have a variety of samples that don't, like sachet, toilet water, lipstick or face powder.

"Say my customer is Mrs. Jones. I say, 'Mrs. Jones, I only have five minutes,' I never sit down. Never!" Mr. Storniola emphasized, as the first lesson in salesmanship. "If you sit down, you're stuck for a thirty-minute demonstration instead of a five-minute one, and in the end, you maybe won't sell as much goods."

IN THE beginning, Mr. Storniola felt a little silly selling cosmetics, but now he loves it. He just says in a tone of final authority, "Mrs. Jones, you are the orchid rose, or the blush pink or the spice red type," and sells her a whole set of matched cosmetics.

The girls take his diagnosis and don't argue, he said.

Mr. Storniola believes that anyone with intelligence and perseverance can be a salesman.

There are 6,000 Fuller brush men throughout the nation, Mr. Wolfe, who used to be a low pressure, no pressure salesman himself, added. And young people who will be looking for their first jobs come June could go much further and fare far worse than door-to-door salesmanship, he implied.

I looked at Mr. Wolfe's magnificent offices with the wood-paneling and the wall-to-wall carpeting and decided he indubitably was right: That's gold in mops and make-up.

territory is the Greenpoint section, a district which houses many persons with less than average incomes and families of every nationality.

Yet so eager is the American woman to have a nice home and a neat appearance that Mr. Storniola, despite the modest district he canvasses, has been the company's No. 1 salesman for a decade.

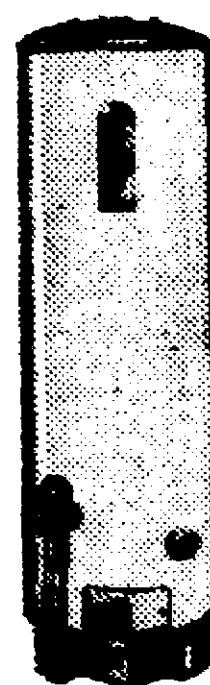

When I asked Mr. Storniola how he got his "foot in the door" of a prospect's home, the vulgarity of my query almost caused both Mr. Storniola and Mr. Wolfe to faint! "A Fuller brush man never gets his foot in the door!" Mr. Storniola said in a shocked tone. "If we're not welcome, we don't go in."

WHAT HOUSEWIFE does not remember when mama was a girl that the inevitable free sample from the Fuller brush man was a small, round scrub brush on a wooden handle, good for pots, pans, vegetables, the kitchen sink and a hundred other uses?

"But not now," said Mr. Storniola. "A brush suggests work. So

Redistricting Bill Up For Assembly Vote

Republicans Seek To Hike Representation In Cuyahoga County

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — A Republican bid to assure the party a bigger representation in the Legislature from the state's biggest county comes to a vote in the GOP-dominated state Senate today.

One of the roughest fights of the 100th General Assembly was in prospect. Solid Democratic, and some Republican, opposition is in sight.

The battle will be over a bill authored by Sen. Harry E. Davis (R-Cuyahoga). It provides for election of representatives and senators from sub-districts in counties with more than one million population. Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) is the only Ohio county with that many people.

Cuyahoga County legislators now, as in all other counties, are elected by the votes of all in the county.

While Cleveland is heavily Democratic, many suburban areas are Republican. The city's vote generally outweighs the suburban vote and the Cuyahoga County delegation in both houses is heavily Democratic. Five Democrats and one Republican represent Cuyahoga County in the Senate and the House delegation is 12-5 Democratic.

The Davis Bill would cut up the county into 17 house districts and six senatorial districts. Thus, a Cuyahoga County voter would have the opportunity to vote for only one representative and one senator. Republicans figure that would be to their advantage and give them a higher percentage of the delegation.

The two major legislative developments Tuesday dealt with censorship and libel.

The Senate Education Committee recommended passage of a bill repealing the present state law requiring prior censorship of movies shown in Ohio.

"Voting for the bill were the author, Sen. Charles A. Mosher (Lorain), and Sens. Oakley Collins (Lawrence), Ross Pepple (Allen), Ralph L. Humphrey (Ashtabula) and Robert Pollock (Stark), all Republicans. Pepple and Collins told the committee they reserve the right to oppose the bill when it reaches the Senate floor.

Committee opponents were Sens. Fred Hoffman (R-Hamilton), Nicholas Bernard (D-Mahoning) and John T. Corrigan (D-Cuyahoga). Their votes supported the views of the Protestant Ohio Council of Churches and the Roman Catholic Order of Knights of Columbus, both of which actively oppose the repealer.

The Senate passed and sent to the House by a 27-5 vote a bill to protect radio and television stations from libel suits if they exercise "reasonable care" in preventing defamatory remarks on their programs.

The Senate also passed by an 18-13 margin and sent to the House a bill requiring the state liquor department to pay about a half million dollars a year in personal property taxes on liquor stocks and store equipment to the counties in which state liquor stores are located.

Aside from the Cuyahoga County voting bill, the Senate has four others on its calendar today and the House has eight. All are of a relatively minor nature.

ZENGER MEMORIAL DEDICATED. Newspaper officials who participated in the dedication of a memorial room to John Peter Zenger, hailed as the father of freedom of the press, in the sub-treasury building at New York City stand by a painting depicting the arrival in New York in 1710 of Zenger, his widowed mother and his brother and sister. Left to right are James Wright Brown, president of Editor and Publisher; Edwin S. Friendly, vice president of the New York World Telegram; Orme Lewis, assistant secretary of the Interior; Howard Davis, former business manager of the New York Herald-Tribune; F. M. Flynn, president of the New York Daily News, and Arthur Hayes Sulzberger, publisher of the New York Times.

Premier of Lebanon, Cabinet Resign

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—President Camille Chamoun cast around today for a new premier following the resignation of Premier Khalid Shehab's four-man Cabinet.

Top contender for the job appeared to be ex-Premier Abdullah el Yafi. Political sources said Yafi wants a minister for each of the nation's 12 Cabinet posts while Chamoun favors a seven-man group as a more workable unit.

The Senate also passed by an 18-13 margin and sent to the House a bill requiring the state liquor department to pay about a half million dollars a year in personal property taxes on liquor stocks and store equipment to the counties in which state liquor stores are located.

Eight persons were injured by the falling tent, but none by the lion, Sheriff Pat Berry said.

The lion was one of eight entering the main arena of the Diano Bros. Circus through a wooden passageway from a truck when the tent began to sway. Seven of the animals scampered back to the vehicle, but the eighth bounded to freedom among the crowd.

As the canvas whipped to the ground, spectators flung aside purses, coats and hats and crawled over fallen bleachers and poles to escape the tent and the lion.

Sheriff Berry said the animal was lassoed "between 30 and 40 minutes" later and dragged to the truck without harming anyone.

Harold Glasser

By George Sokolsky

Harold Glasser, who had long been in government service, is now connected with the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds. This is an important organization which functions in this country and in Europe.

SOKOLSKY

Glasser was called before the Jenner committee where he used the Fifth Amendment to refuse to answer questions which obviously could not incriminate him. For instance: "Mr. Morris. Mr. Adler lived with you in Chicago at that time, did he not?"

"Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question, sir, on the ground it may tend to incriminate me."

SOLOMON ADLER, it is true, has been identified by two witnesses as a Communist, but how is it possible that a demonstrable fact, as to his living with Glasser, could incriminate Glasser? Either they did live together or they did not.

Similarly, Glasser used the Fifth Amendment in connection with an oath he took on January 8, 1944, to which he signed his name, and in it Glasser, among other things, swears "that I am not an alien, nor a Communist, nor a member of any Nazi Bund organization, that I will not become a Communist, or a member of any Nazi Bund organization during such time as I am an employee of the federal government."

This man, who has held some of the most important positions in the United States Government, to which I shall refer in a subsequent article, was shown this oath, signed by him.

THEN THE following colloquy occurred:

Sen. Jenner — Is that your signature, Mr. Glasser?

Mr. Glasser — I refuse to answer that question, sir, on the ground that it may tend to incriminate me.

Sen. Jenner — You refuse to answer whether or not that is your signature?

Mr. Glasser — Yes, sir, I refuse to answer that question.

Sen. Jenner — You know your own signature when you see it, do you not?

Mr. Glasser — I refuse to answer that question, sir, on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

THIS AMAZING sequence of questions and answers followed:

Sen. Welker — Were you a member of the Communist Party on the 8th day of January, 1944, when you were administered that oath, when you took that oath? ...

Mr. Glasser — I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Sen. Welker — You want to deny that you ever took an oath such as that, do you?

Mr. Glasser — I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Sen. Welker — As a matter of fact, at the time you were administered that oath, you were a member of the Communist Party? ...

Mr. Glasser — I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Sen. Smith — May I ask again? Did I understand the witness to say that admitting his own signature would be evidence tending to incriminate him?

Sen. Jenner — That was his statement.

Sen. Smith — Is that right, Mr. Glasser?

Mr. Glasser — Yes, sir.

Sen. Smith — That you refuse to identify your own signature to an oath because to do so would tend to incriminate you?

Mr. Glasser — I refuse to answer the question on the grounds it would tend to incriminate me."

SEN. JENNER made the point that he believed the witness was within his rights under the Fifth Amendment because "if he admits that is his oath, he admits he lied when he took it."

Harold Glasser, hidden away in a vast bureaucracy, was in a position to influence the policies and actions of the United States. His importance cannot be overestimated. Yet, he rejected identifying an oath which he signed and his own signature lest they incriminate him.

When a man is so afraid of his past, and when that past was so important in American life, he needs to be investigated even more fully. That is being done, but such an investigation would be incomplete unless it includes evidence as to how he got his job in the important Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, who gave it to him, who keeps him in that job, and what he did during his trips to Europe every year.

LaRue Marine Aboard Carrier In Accident

A LaRue Marine was aboard the U. S. aircraft carrier Bennington on which a boiler accident killed 11 American seamen and injured four others Sunday off Guantanamo Bay, one of the Navy's principal bases in the Caribbean area.

Sgt. Burke Ballinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Ballinger of Vine St., LaRue, and husband of Mrs. Irene Ballinger, who resides at the same address, was aboard the ship with his Jet Fighter Squadron 231 from Cherry Point, N. C., on maneuvers in the Caribbean.

No word has been received from Sgt. Ballinger by his parents or wife, but they feel confident he was not injured. He is a clerk in his squadron.

The 27,000-ton Essex class flattop was scheduled to leave the Caribbean May 8 back to the United States, Sgt. Ballinger's wife said. It was pulled alongside the base docks at Guantanamo Bay following the accident.

Sgt. Ballinger was graduated from LaRue High School in 1948 where he was active in both football and basketball. He attended Ohio State University for two years during which time he was with the inactive reserves at Port Columbus and was employed with the Marion Industries as an accountant for about a year before being called to active duty in October of 1951.

He was stationed at the U. S. Naval Air Station at Port Columbus for a short time before he was sent to Cherry Point, N. C., in January of 1952.

In October of 1952 he was sent to Puerto Rico where he spent over two months and returned to Cherry Point.

The Bennington has been on maneuvers since February when it left Norfolk, Va.

Sgt. Ballinger is married to the former Miss Irene Benson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Benson of near LaRue. They have two sons.

Shantz Knocks Indians From Top Spot, Wins 3-2

CLEVELAND (AP)—Lefty Bobby Shantz' general feeling today about his "one man" defeat of the Cleveland Indians was simply that he was glad "there weren't any extra innings."

The Philadelphia ace explained in the club house, after Tuesday night's 3-2 victory over Cleveland, that his left shoulder "ached a little" during the last two innings. "This shoulder business just started a week or so ago," he said, "and I don't know what caused it. Maybe it will go with some warm weather."

In spite of Bob Kennedy's ninth inning home run, Shantz appeared to be in quite good enough form. Not only did he space out eight hits among the Indians, but he drove in two of his team's three runs.

They weren't much in the way of hits—one was an infield scratch and the other a pop to left—but they were good enough to knock Cleveland out of first place in the American League.

The one run Shantz drove across in the sixth inning—making the score 2-1—was a heartbreaker for Mike Garcia, the Cleveland loser.

Allie Clark started off that frame by popping a single to right. Gus Zernial fanned. Then Garcia walked Loren Babe, the ex-Yankee playing his first game for the Athletics.

Joe Astroth flied out, and Shantz was next. The ball he hit bounced over Mike's head and hit second base, fouling up Bob Avila's plans to field it behind second.

Clark, to everyone's surprise, dashed all the way home from second, Ray Boone fielded the ball but his throw appeared late, even though catcher Joe Tipton dropped it.

Shantz' other hit, a pop into left that couldn't be reached, also came with two outs and it scored Babe, in the eighth. Babe got on base with a double. That proved to be the winning run.

Besides his homer, Kennedy drove in Cleveland's other run in the second by lining to center-field, Al Rosen scoring from third after the catch.

Manager Jimmy Dykes sends Alex Kellner, another lefty, against the Indians today, if Kellner's bad cold has improved enough.

Iberia Takes Morrow Co. Title, Ends Cardington Reign

CARDINGTON — Iberia High School shattered a 10-year reign of baseball supremacy in Morrow County here Tuesday by whipping Cardington, 5-1, for the county championship.

The Pirates had previously copped the crown for 10 straight years. The Presidents will be marking their third appearance in the district tourney. In 1929, the Iberia team was eliminated after reaching the state finals. Its other appearance was in 1937 when the Prexies won the county title.

Coach Dan Baker's squad revenge a loss in the county finals last year to the same Cardington team. Southpaw Eddie Stall went the distance for the winners and allowed only four hits. He struck out six and walked only one. Eddie Hempfield hurled for the Pirates and allowed six safeties.

Sophomores led the attack of Baker's team. Howard Miller, rightfielder, drove in the first run in the opening inning after Dick Maidens was hit by the pitcher. Ronnie Redick, another sophomore, belted a double to drive in two tallies in Iberia's four-run third frame. Redick ended the day with three hits in three trips to the plate. Frank Curl paced the Pirates with three for three.

The win was the eighth straight for Iberia. Last fall the Presidents won eight and lost one. Coach Baker was scheduled to attend the district drawings today.

Major Leagues Shake Off Effect of Wild Night Session

Yankees, Browns Tangle In Riot; Mantle Shines

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sportswriter

Baseball was recovering from a hangover today following as wild and woolly a night as ever took place in the major leagues.

In St. Louis, the Browns and Yankees engaged in a free-for-all, and the fans bombarded the players with pop bottles and beer cans in the most riotous diamond scene since the final game of the 1934 World Series. After order was restored, the Yankees tripped the Browns, 7-6, to regain the lead in the American League.

In Philadelphia, the St. Louis Cardinals snapped the Phillies' eight-game winning streak with a 6-5 victory as the Redbirds' Peanuts Lowrey came through for the fifth straight time in a pinch-hit role. Each side used five pitchers.

In Cleveland, Bobby Shantz proved he was back on the beam, pitching and batting the Philadelphia Athletics to a 3-2 triumph over the Indians. Shantz spun an eight-hitter and drove in two runs to end the Indians' five-game winning streak and knock them out of first place.

In Chicago, Washington outfielder Jim Busby racked up his second straight four-hit day but it failed to prevent the White Sox from nipping the Senators, 5-4. Cuban Mike Fornieles, traded away from Washington last winter, earned the decision over his former mates. Fifteen Washington runners were left on base.

Lefty Maurice McDermott pitched a three-hitter as he twirled the Boston Red Sox to a 2-0 victory over the Detroit Tigers.

In Brooklyn, southpaw Kenny Raffensberger of Cincinnati tried for the 20th time since 1944 to defeat the Dodgers in a starting role—and failed for the 20th time—as Preacher Roe hurled the Brooks to a 5-1 triumph over the Redlegs. It was Brooklyn's 32nd success over Raffy in 40 decisions.

In New York, the Giants collected 10 hits and drew four walks off right-hander Max Surkont but could score only one run as the Milwaukee Braves whipped Leo Durocher's darlings, 4-1. The Braves made only six hits but four went for extra bases.

throw from Bill Hunter to the plate had him beaten but McDougald crashed into Courtney, knocked the glasses off the catcher's face and the ball out of his hands. The fiery Courtney, who engaged in a couple of battles with Yankee players last summer, retaliated by crashing into Rizzuto a few moments later.

The slugfest in old Sportsman's Park overshadowed a couple of outstanding feats by Yankee players. In the third inning, Mickey Mantle lambasted another prodigious home run that traveled an estimated 500 feet. In the ninth, Allie Reynolds replaced Johnny Schmitz with the score tied at 6-6, the bases loaded, only one out and fanned Roy Sievers and Bob Elliott.

OSU Set For First 1953 Ticket Rush

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—The rush for Ohio State University football tickets starts next week.

George R. Staten, new director of ticket sales for the Buckeye gridiron show, said application blanks would be mailed by Monday to all the regular purchasers of season books. He expects to sell at least 50,000 of the books for the five home games.

Last year, when 48,023 season books were sold, the Bucks drew 543,911 fans to six home contests to lead the country in attendance. That's an average of 75,652. The stadium has 71,071 permanent seats, but temporary ones boost capacity to 78,677.

The application blanks will go to faculty members, university benefactors and employees, alumni association and varsity "O" members, and annual book purchasers on the general public list.

Orders must be back in the university's hands by July 11 from all except the faculty and university employees, who have a Sept. 4 deadline. The students get their ducats after registering for the fall quarter.

The books range in price from $15 to $22.50 depending on the

Dark Star Wins 1-Mile Derby Trial

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A Dark Star cast a shadow over the Kentucky Derby horizon today but failed to dim prospects of Native Dancer and Correspondent as the two horses most likely to succeed in Saturday's 79th running of the $100,000 added three-year-old turf classic.

When Dark Star from Harry F. Guggenheim's New York-owned Cain Hoy Stable came pounding down the stretch to win Tuesday's mile derby trial in the fine time of 1:36, there was much talk among trainers and owners.

But it was mostly talk, for it was difficult to find anybody who would predict the Cain Hoy colt might be able to give the Dancer or Correspondent a serious argument when the distance lengthens to a mile and one-quarter at 4:30 p. m. Eastern Standard Time, Saturday.

Native Dancer, who'll have his final workout tomorrow, heads the field as the probable odds-on selection. Trainer Bill Winfrey may decide to send Social Outcast along with the unbeaten Dancer. Correspondent is the solid second choice at around 4 to 1 with Roy Bay Gem and Dark Star the likely co-third picks at odds around 8 to 1.

Perhaps Ben Jones, who has saddled six derby winners but will not have a representative this time, best expressed the opinion of the experts when he said:

"How can you go beyond Native Dancer? He's a might good looking horse and will be tough to beat."

Davey Favored In TV Bout Over Giuliani

Marks Chuck's First Start Since Meeting Kid Gavilan

DETROIT (AP)—Chuck Davey is a 4 to 1 favorite to whip Sammy Giuliani tonight in the first of his fight-a-month campaign to squeeze back into the welterweight title picture.

The Lansing Mich., school teacher is expected to jab, stab and dance past his younger, brawling opponent in their nationally televised 10-rounder starting at 9 p. m. (EST).

But more important, Davey will be seeking to erase the spectre of that nightmarish evening in Chicago Stadium last February when Kid Gavilan, the welterweight champion, smashed him to the canvass four times, bruised his pride, shocked millions of viewers, and won by a technical knockout in the 10th round.

Now Davey, a proud man, is trying to bounce back.

The 27-year-old southpaw has an ambitious schedule planned. After tonight's bout, there's a May 12 date in Fort Wayne against Sammy Mastrea. Then, on June 10, it'll be Vic Cardell in Cincinnati.

in Pittsburgh, 45-year-old Dutch Leonard, oldest player in the National League, retired three fuzz-faced Pirates in a brilliant ninth-inning relief job to preserve the Chicago Cubs' 5-3 win. It was the Cubs' fourth straight victory and it moved them to within a game and a half of the National League-leading Phillies.

The Yankee-Brownie free-for-all developed when St. Louis catcher Clint Courtney, an ex-Yankee, singled in the 10th, tried to stretch it into a double and slid hard into Phil Rizzuto, upsetting the Yankee shortstop. Yankee second baseman Billy Martin, an old antagonist of Courtney's, followed by slugging the Brownie catcher. Players from both benches swarmed out on the field and a free-for-all followed.

The game was delayed 17 minutes as numerous fans among the 13,463 cash customers began hurling bottles, cans and other missiles, most of them directed at Yankee left fielder Gene Woodling, their nearest target. It took an appeal from St. Louis Manager Marty Marion over the public address system to quiet the fans.

No player was ejected but Chief Umpire Bill Summers threatened to forfeit the game to New York unless order was restored.

The Yankees won the game in the top of the 10th when Gil McDougald, on second following a double, raced all the way home on a force play at second. The

Indians Cling To Association Lead

By The Associated Press
Indianapolis continued to lead the American Association baseball race with an extra-inning 3-2 victory over Toledo Tuesday but St. Paul kept close in contention by beating Minneapolis 6-1.

There were two other 3-2 games. Columbus beat Charleston by that score and Kansas City edged Louisville by the same count in a 10-inning contest.

The Indianapolis-Toledo game went 12 innings. The Indians, who thus continued undefeated at home, put together three singles for the winning score in the 12th.

One defensive slip was the difference as the Columbus Red Birds beat Charleston. After Senator George Corona threw badly to second base on a force-out play that would have ended the seventh inning, the Red Birds scored three runs, powered by two timely singles and a double steal.

Prexy Track Crew Whips Findlay, Fremont

Set For Running Of Marion Relays Friday

Harding's track team maintained its perfect record in the fourth annual night triangular meet at the stadium Tuesday night and set two meet records.

Ken Somerlot's team piled up 88½ points to Fremont's 35 and Findlay's 24½. It was Harding's fourth straight win in the meet.

Gary Ballinger, sophomore broad jumper, leaped 20 feet, 8¾ inches to break the former record of 20 feet, 4½ inches set in 1950 by Glover of Fremont. The 880-yard relay team covered the course in 1:35.7, breaking the previous standard of 1:37 set by Findlay in 1950, and came close to breaking the stadium mark of 1:35.5. The relay team is made up of Ballinger, Jack Garver, Dick Burtch, and Chet King. They were pushed all the way by Findlay's runners.

The meet prepared the Harding team for the fourth annual Marion Night Relays at the Stadium Friday. Harding seeks its third straight win in the meet against 10 other Class A schools.

Big Ten schools have voted against televising their games but have agreed to accept the NCAA's program of controlled television of some contests.

Asks New Ditch In Vernon Heights

A request for the construction and tiling of a new branch of Vernon Heights Ditch 430 was received by Marion County Commissioners Monday from Gerald H. Ginsberg.

The proposed ditch would start in the north side of Vernon Heights Blvd., continue easterly and northerly to Virginia Ave., and then westerly in the south side of Virginia Ave. Seven landowners are affected by the proposal.

Commissioners will view the site on May 21 and will conduct the first hearing on June 4 at 10 a.m. in their office in the Courthouse.

Dodgers Belt Redlegs In First Meeting

Kluszewski Hits Homer to Spoil Roe's Shutout Bid

BROOKLYN, (AP)—It took the Brooklyn Dodgers 53 years and two weeks to do it, but today they were all-square in their series with the Cincinnati Redlegs. Each team has won 575 games since they started playing each other back in 1900.

The Dodgers easily captured their first 1953 game with Cincinnati, 5-1, Tuesday night as old lefty Preacher Roe shut out the Rhinelanders until Ted Kluszewski smacked his third home run in the ninth inning with none on.

Ken Raffensberger, the Redleg left-hander, started against Roe. The Dodgers wasted no time in picking on him. Junior Gilliam and Pee-wee Reese opened with singles and Gilliam scored after Jim Greengrass caught Duke Snider's sinking liner.

Brooklyn notched another run in the sixth on a single by Carl Furillo, a walk issued to Gil Hodges and Dick Williams run-producing single to center.

The home-townners chased Ken in the seventh as they hiked their lead to 4-0 on three singles and a walk. They added their final run in the eighth at the expense of reliever Frank Smith. Don Thompson doubled over short, reached third on a sacrifice, and hogged home as Wally Post leaped high against the rightfield fence to rob Gilliam of an extra-base hit. Kluszewski, hitless in three previous times at bat, drove his homer high over the rightfield screen to spoil Roe's whitewash bid.

Howie Judson will try to break Cincinnati's three-game losing streak today, with Brooklyn's Carl Erskine his probable opponent.

picked up an easy eight points in the 100-yard dash when they came in first and second.

One of the best races of the meet came in the mile run. Sifert of Findlay put on a flying finish that brought him even with Harding's Fred Price around the final curve of the home stretch, but in the battle down the last 50 yards, Price pulled away for his best time of 4:51.

Jack Andrews and Larry Clinger outran Miller of Findlay down the home stretch to win the 440-yard dash with clockings of 54.4 and 54.5. Bibler continued to improve in his 180-yard low hurdles race, knocking nine-tenths of a second off his best previous time. He lost to Whitcombe of Fremont by a yard, touring the course in 21.5.

The 800-yard run was a heart-breaker for Harding's Bill Whittington. He ran his best race, 2:08.1, but was disqualified because a team-mate not in the race ran along beside him on the grass around the last curve. But Fred Hazen, a sophomore, running the 880 for the first time, came in with time of 2:08.5 to be named the winner.

Harding's King and Ballinger waged a battle in the 220-yard dash with King coming in first in time of 23.3. Ballinger was clocked in 23.4.
